ABOUT ME

Hi, I'm Christian Mickelsen and if getting clients has been challenging for you, has kept you up at night stressed you out, or even made you want to cry - I can totally relate.

My first few years in coaching nearly bankrupt me and crushed my spirit.

Today, I'm a 5-time #1 bestselling author, winner of the Inc. 5000 award for being one of the fastest growing companies in America 4 years in a row, and friends with a lot of well-known celebrity experts.

But 20 years ago, back when I first got into coaching, I thought if I could just make $35,000 a year as a coach (which was the most I ever made at my job), be my own boss, do what I love, do something that actually matters, and help a lot of people, that would be great!

At first, I didn't think it would be difficult to get going in my coaching business. But, I ended up really struggling.

First of all, I didn't know how to get people to hear about me, or where to find clients that would pay big fees. And second, I didn't know what to say to them to spark their interest to potentially work with me.

All this made me doubt if I was "good enough" as a coach and had what it took to be successful at coaching.

Finally, I cracked the code and clients hired me to coach them to grow their coaching business.

The first 5 coaches that hired me, grew their businesses to over $100,000 a year within 18 months. And one of them did it in just 72 days. Since then, I've helped hundreds of thousands of coaches get clients and generate a great living doing what they love.

In fact, I've helped my students get over a MILLIONS of clients in over 82 niche markets, from over 108 different countries!

I share all of this with you, so you see how possible it is to grow a successful coaching business. And inside the Get Clients Masterclass I'm going to show you how to get clients fast, and how to create a highly profitable, highly rewarding coaching business you can be proud of.

This training will cover how to get a flood of clients on social media to work with you. You'll discover how to create a Red Hot Free Session Offer that "calls out" to your target audience and motivates them to have a free session with you. And you'll discover several "secret" places you can scoop up clients few coaches will ever know.

I'm on a mission to get the world coached. And while that may be my mission, I can't reach everyone. So the best thing for me to do is help YOU be the best you can be at getting clients.

So, if you're serious about getting clients and having a successful coaching business, be sure to show up and take lots of notes!

Client-Getting Social Media and Email Templates

How To Use These Pre-written Templates

This resource contains offers for all the major niche markets for coaches. You can use the templates as they are, or customize them to suit your particular niche market.

Once you pick the pre-written offer that's best for you, share it on Facebook, LinkedIn and Instagram and watch as people go crazy wanting to have a session with you.

For example, if you have friends on Facebook, share it on Facebook. If you have a LinkedIn account, send it to your LinkedIn associates. If you have an email list, send a pre-written offer to your email subscribers.

You can also use these templates offline. For example, if you're given a chance to give a 30-second commercial at a networking event, you can say, "Hi, my name is _____. I'm a dating coach for women and help women find the man of their dreams. Right now, I'm offering a special Find Your Soul Mate Now coaching session where we'll do X, Y, Z. If you'd like to have one of those sessions with me, just make sure I get your card when everybody is finished introducing themselves. It's great to meet all of you."

One of my clients went from zero to $15,000 a month and climbing (that's $180,000/year!) in his coaching business within 60 days by getting clients through LinkedIn using what I'm sharing here.

This is the way to get people lining up around the block wanting to have a session with you. From there, all you need to do is take them through an introductory coaching session. (I'll be sharing the 5 steps to signing up clients for $5,000 to $100,000 each in Part 4 of our "Get Clients Masterclass" so you know exactly what to do in those intro sessions).

Subject Line: Secrets of Achievement & Change (Special Inside)...

Hi FIRST NAME,

Do you have something you want to change or achieve in your life? Maybe you'd like to...

=> Start a business

=> Find new love

=> Get a new career (or a raise)

=> Lose weight

=> Get your child(ren) to behave better

=> Or something else

No matter what you'd like to change or achieve, the secrets to success are the same...

#1: Get clear. As specifically as possible, decide what you want. The clearer you are on what you want to have in your life, the more likely you are to achieve it.

#2: Get perspective. Most people don't tell anyone what they want or what they are struggling with and because of that they don't get an outside perspective.

#3: Get support. Very few people (if any) achieve anything great alone. Sports stars have teammates and coaches

Be willing to ask the people in your life to support you.

OTHER: "The People I Coach Aren't Listed Here.... What Should I Do?"

See if you can take one of the pre-written offers listed above and change it to match your own personal target market.

For example, if you're a Real Estate coach, maybe you can use the "sales professionals" email and insert words like "Realtor" and "transactions", etc. If you can't see a way to use one of the free sessions above AND we don't get enough requests for a session based on what you coach, that could mean you need more work on your target market. It might be too far "out there" or you just might not be looking at what the "market wants."

A lot of coaches focus on what they (the coach) want to help people with instead of looking at the marketplace and seeing what people are actually looking for help with.

I can't even tell you how excited I am! I just signed up my first client using FSTS, and it was my first official FSTS (not practice)!!! This method works, and I was really able to go deep with her during the call. She signed up right on the phone, because I worked with her until she was over her fear of it not working for her.

Thank you, Christian Mickelsen! This has been my biggest challenge with my business.

Whoo Hooo! Just signed up a new client at 1,250 a month! 4th one at that rate and 1 other client at 1,500 for 1/2 day immersion.(4 hours) Felt in great energy after our Bigs Call today and my FSTS was a 3:30pm right after call. (it was a goal of mine since my first mastermind to sign up 5 clients in 1 month- Christian Mickelsen Challenge) Thought it was going to happen in December but the universe thought from March 9 - April 8th was the month! Thanks for all the support and love from this group these past few months...it has made a massive difference!

Well, I finally got off my duff and did some free sessions this week. Guess what? TSW! Yesterday: signed up a new business coaching client for 12 months. Today: Did an FSTS in person for 2 attorneys - they signed up for 12 months of business coaching @ FULL PAY. Sweeeet! They paid me $1000 to do the Clarify Your Direction session (aka FSTS) with them. Thank you, Christian, for this amazing and versatile client-getting system:)

▶ Free Sessions That Sell

Early this week I used the email script in Christian Mickelsen's free content to schedule two free sessions.

Yesterday I bought the program and last night I binged through all the content. I personalized the script and held my first call today.

I envisioned the prospective client as already successful and I listened to Christian and asked the question about what would slow her down, hold her back, etc. literally 9 times. It wasn't until the 5th time that she started to share real feelings.

At the end, when I pitched the offer, she told me that she knew she needed my program but she literally didn't have the money. I stayed with the offer and instead helped her find a way to come up with the money.

I signed up my first coaching client in a new niche at $1,997 a month for a year!!!

I took 600 today all she could come up with and booked an extra session with her to help her come up with a plan to collect $27k in receivables of which the first $1,400 will go to my first month's fee.

This program has literally paid for itself in less than 24 hours!!!
