

Places Providing Assistance for Particular Needs in Marshall County

Angel Tree Program – many area churches get names from various sources (schools, welfare dept, Good Samaritan) and provide specific gifts for children at Christmas. Contact Sonya Cox 359-4947.

Care Kitchen – McKnight Center on 4th Ave. – 6:00 p.m. on first and third Thursday nights – free hot meal and devotional; sponsored by area churches.

Centerstone Mental Health – provides services on a sliding scale based on income; call for appointment; Located at 1601 Nashville Highway; 359-5802.

Elks Lodge – assists with toys/gifts for children at Christmas; members are often called on to assist individuals. Located at 280 Woodside Avenue.

Good Samaritan – located downtown at 131 East Commerce Street (old Easy Pay Bldg) – open Tuesday and by appointment – Phone numbers are posted – provide household furnishings, food, some monetary assistance with utilities – Wallace Haley, director; Phone 359-4806.

Hunters for the Hungry – annual give-away of processed deer meat; Mike Adams is the contact.

Lewisburg Lions Club – pays for eyeglasses for those who cannot afford them. Terry Jackson is the program contact; Farm Bureau 326 West Commerce.

Marshall County Health Department – assists with baby needs and health; baby milk through Wick programs; birth control assistance; vaccinations; assistance with stop smoking; 206 Legion Avenue; Angie Faulkner, director. 359-1551.

Marshall County Library – “the new concept in libraries” – public access computers are free to use; bulletin board often has job and housing postings; assistance with taxes by appointment; warm place during day and early evening to get out of the weather. Located at 310 Old Farmington Road.

Marshall County Ministerial Association – area churches pool the funds received during their annual Easter and Thanksgiving services. Offers assistance with gas and lodging to transients. Vouchers available at Police Department.

Marshall County Senior Citizens – many programs available for persons 55 and older; includes health checks, forms of entertainment, guidance in living, tax assistance; 230 College Street, Frances Murdock, 359-1808.

Marshall County Transportation – available for any age. Must phone 24 hours ahead, before noon, to schedule a trip. Local residents pay $1 each way for a ride in town. Chapel Hill and Cornersville pay $2 each way. TN Care patients can use number on back of card to set up a ride at no cost. Phone 359-1463.

Marshall County Toy Program – provides Christmas presents for children; Wallace Haley is the contact.

Mary Farley Center at First Methodist Church – Located next to McKnight Center on 4th Avenue. Second and fourth Thursdays, 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.; assistance is given with rent, utilities, needs; must have photo id, copy of bill, name of landlord, proof that person is Lewisburg resident. Church office 359-3919.

Meals On Wheels and Nutrition Program operated through Marshall County Senior Citizens, 230 College Street; 359-1808. Must be 60 years old or older. Eat at the Hardison School Annex Nutrition Site weekdays for $1.50. Cafeteria style hot meal. Delivery available for shut-ins at same rate. Must be set up with paperwork.

New Beginnings Domestic Violence Shelter – Missie Haislip at WJMM can give you the info on this – She receives donations year round. Housing, food, assistance for women and children in abusive situations.

Pregnancy Resource Center– 3rd Avenue North, assists unwed mothers and babies with food, clothing, counseling, parenting needs. 359-8792. Shirley Lowe, director.