COVID-19 EMERGENCY ORDER #2

BY THE COUNTY MAYOR

AN ORDER EXTENDING THE APRIL 3, 2020 DECLARATION OF A STATE OF LOCAL EMERGENCY IN MARSHALL COUNTY, TENNESSEE
FOR SEVEN ADDITIONAL DAYS

WHEREAS, due to the spread and identification of cases of COVID-19 throughout the State of Tennessee, on April 3, 2020, I, Marshall County Mayor Mike Keny, declared a State of Local Emergency in Marshall County; and

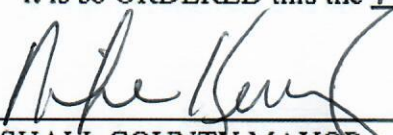

WHEREAS, that Emergency Order was issued pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, 58-2-110 and 58-8-104, which states that each political subdivision has the power and authority to declare a state of local emergency, limited to seven days, but may be extended as necessary in seven day increments, and gives County Mayors the ability to waive procedures relative to "performance of public work and taking whatever prudent action is necessary to ensure the health, safety and welfare of the community"; and

WHEREAS, since that declaration, COVID-19 has continued to spread throughout the State of Tennessee, including 9 confirmed, positive cases of this virus in Marshall County, Tennessee;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mike Keny, Marshall County Mayor, in the interest of public safety and welfare pursuant to the statutes of the State of Tennessee and other applicable laws, do hereby extend my Emergency Order declaring a state of local emergency in Marshall County, Tennessee that was issued on April 3, 2020, for seven additional days, beginning April 13, 2020 through April 20, 2020.

This order shall remain in effect for seven days, at which time the same will be extended, amended or otherwise addressed.

It is so ORDERED this the <sup>9th</sup> day of April, 2020.
