This tour is perfect for adults and children alike. It's a great way to spend a day in Chicago without the hassle (and cost) of driving and parking. Our tour departs early, with a lovely continental breakfast on board. Our first stop will be the Museum of Science and Industry to explore the many interactive exhibits. Guests can dine on their own for lunch, shop and even ride the giant ferris wheel before boarding the bus to head to the Shedd Aquarium to enjoy all their sealife adventures (admission will include the Stingray experience as well). After a busy day, enjoy some great Windy City treats on the way home (thinking I will get everyone a slice of pizza, soda and fresh Garrett's popcorn to serve on the way home since it's going to overlap dinner hour)
