Taliesin

The name belongs to a Welsh poet who inspired the world renowned architect, Frank Lloyd Wright. Now it is known as his home and studio, nearly 100 years old, located in the rolling hills of Spring Green, Wisconsin. Our tour takes us throughout his entire estate, where we hear from docents about the life and legacy of the famous architect. You'll see his studio and hear accounts of his life as we tour the living areas of the home. We'll also include a delicious lunch along the Wisconsin River, and a stop at Wollersheim Winery for a tour and tasting. Enjoy coffee and some summer specialties on the way, as well as treats for the ride home.

Depart 7 am Return 6 pm

Cost: $125 per person

Theatre Under the Stars

We'll head north to Door County again to enjoy a performance by the talented Peninsula Players. We'll enjoy another fantastic dinner at Alexander's - one of Door County's finest restaurants, where guests will select from a limited menu of their specialties. After dinner, it's a show under the stars at the Peninsula Players theatre. Their performance is yet to be determined, but it will be sure to entertain guests as they enjoy the atmosphere in the theatre in the woods. A popular trip from 2018, we hope you'll join us for another evening under the stars!
