BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST,

The priest, Jeremiah relates the fatherly nature of the Lord God with His promises of gracious care and the future restoration of His suffering people to their homeland. St. Paul honors the universal ministry of Christ Jesus, the High Priest, at the right hand of God the Father for everybody's journey to eternal life. Jesus leads His disciples from darkness to light by leading from lack of faith in Him, from misunderstanding to understanding, from foolishness to wisdom, from half knowledge to full knowledge of Him as He led Bartimaeus from blindness (darkness) to sight (light). Bartimaeus was poor and was depending upon what he heard. After the miracle of regaining his eye sight, Bartimaeus followed Jesus on the way to Jerusalem. We are reminded to often pray, "Jesus, have pity on me. Master, I want to see." God bless us all.
