Congratulations to Friendship Academy, just off highway 109 in Wilson County.. now state champs! The pro hockey team of Nashville and area, the Preds, are scorching red hot indeed! A really nice man that I did promotions for, Phil Fulmer, the new athletic director at Tennessee. Phil will right the football Vols. Men's and women's basketball fine, young but fine. Track, softball, baseball all in good shape. Lipscomb men's basketball nips their big rival Belmont. Our Vol State Pioneers lose to Chattanooga and to Cleveland State. What a finish in one of those games! We will have no other comment..good fan turnout. The games are free, so come on out. BTW, the big WVCP 88.5 fm staff great for the school. Games all on channel 19 cable in Gallatin. Miles Wanstrath missed fishing this week so no fishing report. Younger brother Luke Wanstrath pulling hard for Auburn but Georgia upset his moments. Bob Pritchett keeps us up on Allen county and all those super athletics in Simpson County Kentucky. Cumberland University in Lebanon going strong in basketball and football recruit possibilities. Hello to my friends in Macon, Smith, Robertson counties. Sorry that Springfield lost state title game, but just like White House it was a super football year. Portland and White House girls win state titles. Beech made it to state title game only to finish second. But, hey, that is wonderful to even get there. Proud of Gallatin in all sports! Watch that loaded freshman bunch lead by Mark Wilson, a coach that knows his stuff. Good luck guys. Keep your eyes on Macon county and Westmoreland basketball, and always Mt Juliet and Franklin Simpson basketball. East Robertson and White House and Hendersonville will surprise many in round ball. Missed my broadcast partner Eddie Sherlin taking care of a very sick mother and traveling to East Tennessee for services honoring his favorite uncle who passed. Saw on-line a section for the late Bubba Dunn, one of the best all around athletes in Gallatin history. I heard wonderful stories from coach Rusty Melvin on some his former teammates and former coach who had played for the new York Yankees. So missing for son Will Buntin and his lovely wife this time of the year. Hope all are in holiday spirit. Just let us know about any sports happening in your area. Happy Holidays! Maybe better days will be headed to all of us during this great time of the year. I do know that Bill Johnson, former Portland player and former Gallatin coach, helps less fortunate folks thru Bethpage United Methodist church, and big sports fan Downey Brawner thru the Food Bank based in Gallatin. To all, bless you, enjoy every day. Looking forward to hearing from all and we will talk sports in the Country Trader and on line. Franklin Simpson wins football state championship. Titans and Houston always interesting game. One because the two teams owners were next door neighbors. Happy every day..billbuntin007@yahoo.com
