Don's Farm Fresh Produce Market is unlike any other fruit and vegetable market around. The repeat customers are a testament to his long standing business in Gallatin. What you see in his store is true, natural food with no chemicals, no antibiotics, no nitrogen induced fast ripening practices. Over 40 years in food produce, 21 years selling from the back of a pickup truck and over 6 years in a walk in store. Give yourself a wonderful experience - stop at Don's, and while you're there, pick up a big bologna sandwich, chips and a drink for only $5!

Hello friends, welcome to Let's Talk Sports in the Country Trader and on line. We serve Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky. If you have sports news in your community, we would like to hear from you...players, teams, events...just let us know. We are so proud of Kentucky, Tennessee, Belmont, and Lipscomb...all playing in the big tournaments for college basketball! Looks like the Preds have hit their stride. Sounds play their parent team, Texas, before the largest baseball crowd in their history. Remember Larry Smittou, with friends, started pro baseball for the area years ago. Now we have the Hot Rods pro men in Bowling Green in a beautiful downtown stadium. Gallatin baseball team successful Florida trip. Cumberland of Lebanon and Vol State baseball and softball teams in action. Talked with Tommy Crafton remembering when Leonard Dorris, Reese Legette, Elvis Brown, and others started little guys baseball in Portland. Ed Hester, John McKinney, Rudd Melvin, and others did the same in Gallatin. Rick Burchfield and others put Hendersonville on the baseball and softball maps. Teams traveled from as far away as California to play in the famous Conway Twitty Classic. Johnny Cash had one of the top amateur basketball teams. Mike Hendrix, long time Hendersonville coach, picked up his six hundredth win. Former Mt Juliet great, Amanda Butler, took Clemson to new levels. Travis Williams, formerly of TSU, now at Georgia State. Volunteer help need to work the fantastic NFL draft in Nashville. Over two hundred thousand fans expected to be here. If you want a game or story about your town or your local team just let us know. Bob Prichett keeps us up on Scottsville, Bowling Green, Franklin Simpson. Rusty and the Ole Coach are full of information down at Fast Cash Pawn. The Hall of Fame coach, Larry Joe Inman, stays on top of Wilson County. The great one, Eddie Sherlin, hits all areas for us. Tommy Crafton is on top of Portland Panther territory. The Cheese tells goodies for Macon and Trousdale counties and Westmoreland. Joe Draper in White House and Coach Melvin is in touch with all. We will take your tips and pass them on to thousands. Let's talk sports. I am billbuntin. Bye the way, Miles Wanstrath caught twenty five bass in a hour. Of course he turns all loose...just loves to fish. Tell us what time and where your favorite player and teams play. Thanks for the comments. Greg Aires has sports information on WHIN 1010; and speaking of 1010; had the chance this past week to visit with Jack Williams and laughed and cried some about the number of games we had done while doing radio together... great memories.*
