Lets Talk Sports with Bill Buntin

Sponsored by
COVERUPS CUSTOM QUILTING • 615-230-8433

Nothing can make a home or business look better than a custom pillow. We also do spreads and any kind of sewing. Ask for Pat!

Welcome sports friends to Let's Talk Sports. I am Bill Buntin for Gwen, our general manager, and for Pat, our sponsor, who owns Coverups Custom Sewing for bedspreads, coverlets, pillows....any sewing needs... Pat is the one to call. She is in Gallatin, but serves all of Middle Tennessee and southern Kentucky with pick up and delivery service. Plenty of sports news. The Titans are on the practice working out. Preds hockey getting to know new teammates. Sounds of Nashville and Hot Rods pro baseball teams are chasing championship. Congratulations to Allie Fulcher on your new head coaching job at Trevecca. Sophie Harris to play soccer at Huntsville. The Music City Mayhem hockey wins 17 & under in line to win national. Our Hailey Miller signs with Kentucky Wesleyan. Gallatin basketball ace, Parish Cloud, signs with Martin Methodist Evan Henson inks with Milligan. Kelly Coley and Marie Short win Gallatin Country Club Golf Open. Bob Prichett says Franklin Simpson loaded with great athletes. While our friends in Allen tells us that Scottsville loaded with super players in most sports, plus fishing there is at an all time high. The Mid South Conference where Cumberland has played for years has added Bethel, Freed Hardman and Martin Methodist are new members. Portland Panther great, Corey Brewer, now living in Houston, should sign his new NBA contract. Former Pope John Paul great now facing paid suspension from NFL. About forty days till Big Orange football days. Watch your practice fields... schools start back soon and that means football practice. Miles Wanstrath and more gonna continue with Fall baseball in the Fall on that fantastic turf. This should be one of the best high school schedules. Cheese tells me Trousdale county loaded. Stimy Kemp thinks this could be the year in Smith county. Westmoreland and Macon County fired up. A real battle between Station Camp, Hendersonville, Gallatin for big talking. Remember the Green Wave with three new coaches. The Purple and Whites look excellent and White House a growing area should be good for the Devils and Heritage. East Robertson looking good. Pope John, Goodpasture, Friendship Christian....fine groups. So coaches are happy, plenty of talent, fans fill your stadiums. Yes, we are still racing, playing golf, even the Great Eddie Sherlin still out on the links. Saw some old friends at Gallatin Barber Shop and at the Trader office. Danny Barber's grandson, Ethan, still swinging hot bat wearing his new World Championship ring. Gerald and Pam Gregory have a grandson that could be major league material. I saw and talked with old teammate of mine, Jerry Bell, who also played in the majors as a thrower. Now doing pitching camps in Wilson county. Call him. I am Bill Buntin. Thanks for reading the Trader and catching us on line at www.countrytraderonline.com where you can submit your ad anytime day or night! Thanks again. BB.

Print Media & Advertising Advantages

Your business can pursue a number of avenues when it comes to promoting your products and services. Advertising can take the form of television or radio spots, placing billboards in high-traffic areas or using the Internet. You can also make use of print advertising, which offers its own set of advantages over other forms of media.

Unlimited Exposure

Print media such as newspapers and magazines allow for unlimited exposure. Unlike television or radio where advertising time is scheduled, prospects have potential exposure to print ads at virtually any time. A newspaper or magazine left on a coffee table can be viewed repeatedly and at the reader's discretion. The reader also has the opportunity to study the ad at his leisure and isn't limited to 30 or 60 seconds.

Non-Intrusive

Print ads are less intrusive than other forms of media. Radio and television ads often interrupt programming which can sometimes be an annoyance. With print media, the prospect has greater control as to when she views the ads, which eliminates interruptions.

Target Marketing

Certain forms of print media allow for a high level of target marketing. Magazines, for example, tend to be highly specialized, so ads can be developed to appeal to a specific readership. For example, companies that manufacture upscale clothing for men can target their ads to publications that appeal to professional males. A manufacturer of fishing gear can place ads in hunting and fishing publications.

Loyal Readership

Print media sources tend to have longstanding, loyal readership. People may read their copy more than once and may keep them for long periods of time. This frequent readership helps reinforce the advertiser's message or even develops an ongoing campaign that may cover multiple issues. Advertising in publications that have been around for many years can also lend credibility to the advertiser.

Position Flexibility

Advertisers usually have a choice as to where they place their ad in the publication. If the budget allows, the advertiser may choose the location that offers the highest visibility, such as the front cover or above the fold. Newspapers also offer the flexibility to choose the desired ad size, such as a full page or quarter-page.
