As we begin a new year, why not try something different to let everyone know the status of your business... your hours, how you are implementing social distancing, do you deliver or have curbside service and what kind of specials are you offering your customers, etc.?

As a locally owned, small business, The Country Trader would like to be a part of helping you reach out to regular and potential new customers.

Use social media as a free marketing tool, and use the Trader (in print and online) to reach hundreds of readers in the rural areas that do not have fast internet service or social media accounts.

We are offering discounted advertising rates to help you keep your business growing.

Your ads will be seen in print, on our website, and on our Facebook page where we can also place a link to your website or Facebook page.

Lets Talk Sports with Bill Buntin

Sponsored by
COVERUPS CUSTOM QUILTING • 615-230-8433

*Nothing can make a home or business look better than a custom pillow. We also do spreads and any kind of sewing.
Ask for Pat!*

Hello Sports Fans. Welcome to Let's Talk Sports. I am Bill Buntin, just a local guy with memories and great local fans. Thanks to Steve, our owner, and Gwen, our manager, to Pat of Coverups Custom Sewing....serving all of Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky with pick up and delivery of your pillows, coverletts, bedspreads, any custom or sewing work.

Now we can say how proud we are of our local high school teams fighting for games against the Virus. Cumberland can start football play in a few weeks. The fine men and women Vols team in a real battle to work in games. Hockey with our Preds just don't know. The Sounds and Hotrods, our two pro baseball teams are wishing for a season. The same with Vol State softball and baseball teams, when we hear from Coach Hudson, our Athletic Director at Vol State. Waiting to know what Coach Dewayne Alexander at Tennessee Tech will be able to do. Good luck to Western Kentucky. Vanderbilt several coaching changes. High school teams have different schedules to deal with. TSU waiting, but are playing toundball. Little guys still playing basketball at the Civic Center in Gallatin. Young baseball hit a great addition to the beautiful baseball field for the older guys. That fabulous girls basketball team at Macon County just keep on breaking records. Cheese, the powerful voice of the Trousdale County sports, says they just keep holding their breath, but excited to have so many fine football players returning. Maybe Cumberland University will get spring sports started. Belmont and Lipscomb getting in some basketball, as is Vandy. Happy Birthday to sports great Larry Joe Inman who has been sick but on his way back. Sports legend Eddie Sherlin has managing to get in a few holes of golf. Scottsville, Allen County still turning out excellent teams. Local deer hunters tell me it is a great harvest. Westmoreland fine youth baseball already talking with their kids. If you have any local sports news let's us know. Yes, we are your local folks. Stay safe, wear a mask and take the shot if you have a chance. Bill Buntin saying thanks for the calls and comments. Local Kentucky fan Bob Prichette, our tax pro, says some of the young Big Blue are starting to mature. Titans with a tremendous last second field goal for the Big Playoff win!!!

ADD THE COUNTRY TRADER TO YOUR LIST OF MARKETING OPTIONS IN 2021!

LET THE TRADER HELP YOU MARKET YOUR BUSINESS in 2021!

*Print Advertising reinforces your
social media,
website, radio and television*

*advertising and our readers will keep it
for future reference.*

*It also reaches customers who are without internet access or don't use
social media.*

Print Media & Advertising Advantages

Your business can pursue a number of avenues when it comes to promoting your products and services. Advertising can take the form of television or radio spots, placing billboards in high-traffic areas or using the Internet. You can also make use of print advertising, which offers its own set of advantages over other forms of media.

Unlimited Exposure

Print media such as newspapers and magazines allow for unlimited exposure. Unlike television or radio where advertising time is scheduled, prospects have potential exposure to print ads at virtually any time. A newspaper or magazine left on a coffee table can be viewed repeatedly and at the reader's discretion. The reader also has the opportunity to study the ad at his leisure and isn't limited to 30 or 60 seconds.

Non-Intrusive

Print ads are less intrusive than other forms of media. Radio and television ads often interrupt programming which can sometimes be an annoyance. With print media, the prospect has greater control as to when she views the ads, which eliminates interruptions.

Target Marketing

Certain forms of print media allow for a high level of target marketing. Magazines, for example, tend to be highly specialized, so ads can be developed to appeal to a specific readership. For example, companies that manufacture upscale clothing for men can target their ads to publications that appeal to professional males. A manufacturer of fishing gear can place ads in hunting and fishing publications.

Loyal Readership

Print media sources tend to have longstanding, loyal readership. People may read their copy more than once and may keep them for long periods of time. This frequent readership helps reinforce the advertiser's message or even develops an ongoing campaign that may cover multiple issues. Advertising in publications that have been around for many years can also lend credibility to the advertiser.

Position Flexibility

Advertisers usually have a choice as to where they place their ad in the publication. If the budget allows, the advertiser may choose the location that offers the highest visibility, such as the front cover or above the fold. Newspapers also offer the flexibility to choose the desired ad size, such as a full page or quarter-page.
