Special Resident
Grace Ausen

Born in Flandreau, SD, Grace attended school in Egan, SD. She commented on how Egan and Flandreau were arch rivals back in those days. She had a sweet look on her face when saying she "married her high school sweetheart." Grace was a homemaker, living on a farm, and raising seven children. Her husband passed away at an early age. Ironically, Grace then became a secretary at the Flandreau School. After being set up on a blind date, she met Holger Ausen, who also had seven children. Together they made a happy family of 16. Grace moved to Jasper where Holger owned Tri-State Silo. In their retirement, they refinished antique furniture. Grace now has a very cozy room here at the Sunrise Village.

The Jasper Sunrise Village is for people who find it difficult or impossible to continue to live in their own home. Please call to see what we have to offer.
