

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Shelbyville, Tennessee

Service for the Lords Day
2nd Sunday after Pentecost

June 19, 2022

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

A fifth widely accepted rule of the interpretation of Scripture is the rule of love. The Second Helvetic Confession once again helps us understand this rule of interpretation in its chapter 2 titled “Of Interpreting the Holy Scriptures; and of Fathers, Councils, and Traditions.” The paragraph begins:

The True Interpretation of Scripture. The apostle Peter has said that the Holy Scriptures are not of private interpretation (II Peter 1:20), and thus we do not allow all possible interpretations.... But we hold that interpretation of the Scripture to be orthodox and genuine which is gleaned from the Scriptures themselves (from the nature of the language in which they were written, likewise according to the circumstances in which they were set down, and expounded in the light of like and unlike passages and of many and clearer passages) and which agree with the rule of faith and love, and contributes much to the glory of God and man’s salvation." (5.010, The Book of Confessions)

Not only do we see the fifth rule for interpretation in this paragraph but also the sixth rule (the study of scripture in its literary and historical context) and second rule (scripture interprets itself). Dr. Guthrie suggests that this rule is “an often forgotten rule.” (p. 14, Christian Doctrine) It is overlooked because somehow the interpreter of scripture overlooks the foundational expression of God’s will: Love.

Jesus gave the expression of God’s will for humanity in response to the scribe’s question, “Which commandment is the first of all?” Quoting from the Torah (Deuteronomy 6:4-5; Leviticus 19:18), Jesus answered the scribe, “The first is, ‘Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ The second is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.” (Mark 12:28-31) Dr. Guthrie comments: “All right interpretations reflect the love of God and the love of God’s people for all kinds of people everywhere, everyone included and no one excluded.” (p. 14, ibid) In interpreting scripture, the rule of love is hard for some Christians to accept and at times difficult for all Christians to practice. The apostle Paul reinforces this rule of love by charging the Galatians “through love (to) become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’” (Galatians 5:13-14) Any interpretation of scripture that goes against the rule of love is questionable.

May the Love and Peace of our Lord Jesus be with you all,

Jim

Preparation for Worship (Read before service for quiet meditation):

"O God our Father, renew our spirits and draw our hearts to Thyself, that our work may not be to us a burden but a delight; and give us such love to Thee as may sweeten all our obedience. Help us that we may serve Thee with the cheerfulness and gladness of children, delighting ourselves in Thee and rejoicing in all that is to the honor of Thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen." (From The Book of Worship, as recorded in A Guide to Prayer for Ministers and Other Servants, p. 207, Shawchuck and Job)

People: 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Treat me as one of your hired servants.'"

Leader: We come to our Father God, who is faithful, forgiving, and waiting for us to confess our sins, as we pray:

*Prayer of Confession (unison)

O most holy God, we have sinned and fallen short of Thy glory. We have strayed like lost sheep wandering from Thy fold. Taking the abundant life inherited in Thee, we squander Thy grace in ungrateful living. Show us who we truly are. Open our eyes and hearts to becoming the people Thou called us to be. Forgive us our debts, our gracious Father, and restore us as Thy children, through Thy Son, our Lord Jesus.

(time of silent confession)

*Assurance of Pardon

(Luke 15:22-24)

Leader: But the father said to his slaves, "Quickly, bring out a robe – the best one – and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

People: And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this child of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!"

Leader: And they began to celebrate, as all the angels in heaven do when the lost are found.

All: Once lost, we have been found and forgiven through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.*

We invite our whole congregation to take part in this great adventure!

We are very excited about our church's next VBS adventure. Right before our eyes, we will see the downstairs of our church transform back into Bible times. Each day the children (Tribe members) will become part of history as they see, hear, touch and even taste what it was like to live in Bible times. They will interact with shopkeepers, play at the Village Playground and even attend Synagogue School. Throughout the week, our six Tribes will take a journey "walking" Jesus' path through Jerusalem that led to the cross and ultimately brought God's greatest gift of love to completion.

Make sure our VBS dates are on your calendar, July 17-21 from 5:00 - 8:30pm. Please share the dates with your family, friends, coworkers, and neighbors!
