Smokey's Five Rules of Wildfire Prevention:

Youngsters visited with Smokey the Bear and were taught the five rules of fire prevention at the 17th Annual Angel Tree Christmas Party.

1. Only you can prevent wildfires
2. Always be careful with fire
3. Never play with matches or lighters
4. Always watch your campfire
5. Make sure your campfire is completely out before leaving it

Murrieta Police Department Josh Rodriguez Detective and Explorers

Officer Rodriguez shared the Explorer program is open to young men and women ages 14-21 and provides educational training, career orientation experience, leadership opportunities and community service activities.

Another program he mentioned was SUNBURST Youth Challenge Academy offered by the California National Guard for youth 16-18 to enable dropouts or those behind in school to earn credits for their high school diploma or full-time employment.

Reclaiming the Lives of At-Risk Youth

Mentoring: "Direction"

Giving kids purpose, destiny, prosperity and a winning spirit!

Plinko the "Game" of the 17th Annual Angel Tree Christmas Party Hosted by Wells Fargo Lake Elsinore - Main Team Members

The children and some adults were thrilled to drop the chips down the slide where it bounced around and landed on prizes. As soon as the players finished they got right back in line again. Jaelin said, "playing Plinko was exciting because you didn't know what prizes you would win."

Plinko was headed up by Wells Fargo Misty Elms personal banker and Heather Calderon service manager inviting children of all ages to have fun while gaining knowledge around financial literacy. Jonay Cordeiro branch manager said, "it is important that bankers take time to connect with our youth educating them for their future success." The sooner we have the opportunity to share the knowledge, will allow them the ability to begin making educated decisions around what they want their future to look like."
