National Children of Incarcerated Parents Conference

April 14-17, 2019 Renaissance Downtown Phoenix Hotel Over 500 attendees will attend the ASU Conference

Dr. Mona and Bob Davies exhibitors will feature Breaking the Cycle of Incarceration Model developed during a research project with children of incarcerated parents who have participated in the ministry's programs for 10 years. Davies is the author of Children's Liberation From Incarceration Breaking Cycles and New Beginnings published in 2017. Davies has expanded their organization's youth programs and implemented "Breaking the Cycle of Incarceration" Mentor Protégé Workshops and "Gearing Up For STEM" Mentor Protégé Workshops. These workshops are being held throughout Riverside County communities, schools, church locations, among other venues. It is imperative that these children envision the ability to pursue the fields of the future and to learn about these in demand, well-paid career paths. To donate online visit
