Kid's Q Official KCBS Rules and Regulations

There will be two (2) age group distinctions: Grill Masters 7-11 and Pit Masters 12-16

The cook's meeting for will be held at 6:00 PM in the cook area on Main St in front of Mead Lumber.

All competitors must attend this meeting and be accompanied by an adult.

Please remember this is a Kids contest.

We will have contest officials in the cooking area observing the cooks and if any major violations occur, the officials will have the authority to ask a parent or helper who is doing too much of the work for the child to stop and determine if the violation has given the child an unfair advantage, an exception to this would be starting the charcoal. Unless your child is a younger competitor such as 7 or 8 years old, he or she must do all of the preparation. That includes adding seasoning, marinating, tending the product while it is cooking, testing for doneness, cutting and preparing it for presentation, preparing the turn in box and taking the turn-in box to the judge's area. We encourage your child to practice these steps at home so they are familiar with them and ready to compete.

If you feel your child cannot do some of the above steps, please contact one of the officials and a decision will be made on how much, if any, the parent may help. Competitors with disabilities are eligible and encouraged to compete, but will need do as much as they are able with some help from an assigned person.

Hamburger

Each contestant will be provided a 1 lb. of Hamburger, They will turn in two ¼ lb. Burgers for judging. The meat must be kept on ice a prior to start of cooking. It must remain raw and have no rubs, marinades, etc. on it prior to cook time beginning. You may add any marinades, rubs, injections etc. that you wish as soon as the official starts the cooking time. You can prepare the meat in any way you like with any condiments or as you see fit. Only your prepared burgers should be place in the judge's box, garnish will be allowed as per KCBS rules.

Cooking

Ribs, Rods, Rock'n Roll will designate an area on Main St. for cooking. All foods must be cooked over charcoal and MUST be cooked in the approved area. Food, once cooked/prepared cannot leave the cook area until it is turned in for judging. The competitor must do the preparation, cooking and turn in. Parents may help (with the approval of the officials) with fires and slicing or anything considered dangerous. A parent (or responsible adult) must be present with the competitor during the entire cooking process, but cannot do the work.

Turn In.

Turn in will be made at the approved judging area. You will be given a 9 x 9 Styrofoam container for turn in at the Cook's meeting. Each container will have your number on it. That is the top of the box. Boxes will follow the KCBS rules, that is, nothing in the box but the Burger as completed and the optional allowable garnishes (green leaf lettuce, cilantro, kale or parsley).

Turn in times – You have a 10-minute window, 5 minutes before - until 5 minutes after the specified time. No exceptions. Cell phone time is official. (7:25 to 7:35) See Schedule on Page 2.
