

2014–2015 New Generations

- RYLA committee selected and sponsored two high school students to attend the Rotary Youth Leadership Academy (RYLA) at William Woods University in Fulton, Missouri.
- Scholarship committee continued Southeast's history of leadership in Springfield by forming a citywide Rotary Global Scholarship committee. Successfully recruited members from every Springfield Rotary club and the Rotaract club.
- Student guest committee hosted and recognized 32 high achieving senior student guests from 5 local public and 4 private high schools. On graduates day, honored 4 high school students who were children or grandchildren of members.
- Interact committee continued our tradition of seeding area Rotary clubs by launching a new Interact club at Parkview High School.
- Rotaract committee remained close with the Springfield Rotaract Club, sending regular visitors to meetings. The club, which was started by Southeast Rotary, won the Presidential Citation award this year, which is a rare feat for Rotaract clubs.
- Southeast members partnered with Leadership Springfield's Leadership Academy to provide a career fair during their business day. Southeast Rotarians representing 8 different career paths led small group discussions with 32 top area high school juniors.
