

Literacy Volunteers of Gloucester

Digital Literacy Information Sessions and Class Registration.

All classes are held at Gloucester Library. Laptops will be provided for class.

Why Digital Literacy?

Digital literacy skills are essential for adult learners to participate both academically and in the workplace.

What does Literacy Volunteers of Gloucester (LVG) have to offer the community for FREE?

Meet me (Janie Corbett) at the Gloucester Library October 5th or 12th between 6pm and 7:30pm for more information and registration.

There will be three courses (Digital Literacy, Microsoft and Social Media) available and you can sign up for the courses/s that interest you.

Digital Literacy October 14, 19, 21 (4:00 – 5:30 or 6:00 -7:30) October 26th 6-7:30

Basic Computer Skills and Understanding Windows
Basic Internet and Internet Safety
Basic email

Microsoft Basic

Word
Excel
PowerPoint

October 28th, Nov 2nd and 4th
4-5:30 or 6-7:30

Social Media Basics

Instagram
YouTube
Facebook
Twitter
TikTok
Pinterest
Snapchat

Nov 9th, 11th, 16th 6-7:30

Literacy Volunteers of Gloucester will be offering these basic digital literacy courses in partnership with the Gloucester library this fall.

The curriculum will be taught by Janie Corbett who has her BA and MS degrees. She has worked in information technology for 40+ years and as an adjunct professor for 9+ years.

For more information, please contact the Literacy Volunteers of Gloucester at 804-693-1306 or Janie Corbett at 804-725-6292.
