PRAYER UPON ENTERING

Dear Father in heaven, as I begin this new week, accept my thanks for every good gift which You have given me, especially for giving me the saving faith and heaven. Bless Your people gathered this day of worship, praise and prayer. Guide and strengthen those who preach and teach the Gospel. Give us open ears and an open heart to receive Your Word with joy. Give me the power to live according to it. Make me a good and faithful witness to the Gospel throughout the week. Guide me in all I think, do, and say. Help me always to remember and to do Your holy will; through Christ, my Lord. Amen.

WELCOME to all who worship with us today! May the message of the risen and ascended Christ strengthen and encourage you this week. If you are without a church home, we invite you to prayerfully consider Hope. To our summer residents and visitors - welcome back! Enjoy your time spent in the beautiful north woods! Worship with us again soon!

AS WE GATHER – Ascension is past, Pentecost lies ahead. Christ’s mission on earth has been accomplished. He will continue to carry on this mission through His Holy Spirit. On this Sunday between the two festivals, the Easter season is brought to a close with visions of and prayers for the heavenly glory yet to come. For the believer this glory is certain.
