Privilege of the Floor

- Deb & Steve Holdsworth – Spoke on the issue of increased truck traffic and excessive speed on Route 5 & 20 in the Town section with the current speed limit of 40 MPH. They also noted that traffic has been observed passing stopped school buses in that area that have lights flashing. They made the request that the Town review the option of having the speed limit reduced to 35 MPH, the State would need to review the speed limit reduction request. Supervisor Campbell is going to put in a request to the Sheriff's Department for increased speed control in the area, he is also going to contact the Bloomfield Central School regarding the issue of traffic passing stopped school buses in that area. Supervisor Campbell to provide follow up after contacting the Sheriff, State and School.
- Mike Borgeest – Addressed the issue of the Code Enforcement position/office for the Town and the lack of consistent dedicated personnel is becoming a major concern. He also advised the Board of the issue at the Dollar General Store in Town having propane tanks in front of the store with no barrier.
