Catholic Schools

Catholic education recognizes parents as the primary educators of their children. When parents make the choice of a Catholic school, they enter into a partnership with the school in the education and formation of their children. This partnership becomes most effective when the formal education that takes place in the school is reinforced and witnessed in the home. This is particularly true in regard to the faith formation of children, where it is reasonable to expect that the Gospel values espoused in the Catholic school are actively lived out in the home. The Family/Church Commitment Form represents the formal expression of the intent of parents and parishes to join in active partnership in the formation of their children. Parents, as primary educators commit to:

1. formal registration in a parish or church
2. regular church attendance, and
3. spiritual, personal and financial support of the parish or church.

Catholic parishes, in turn, commit to the spiritual support of member families in the education of their children, as well as support of Catholic Schools. Non-Catholic churches are asked to make a moral commitment of support of the family's efforts to educate their children.

It is understood that the vast majority of parents with children in Catholic schools already meets and/or exceeds these expectations. The completion of this form for these families serves as an affirmation of that commitment and participation in parish life.
