St. Agnes School takes pride in our students. We share their accomplishments with the public in many ways. This consent form is to facilitate that sharing.

I hereby consent that St. Agnes School may publish or cause to be published the following information and images concerning my son or daughter: name; honors or awards received; photograph, videotape; image or likeness; courses and fields of study; home district; grade level; participation in school activities; recordings of activities, events, and performances; artistic creations; written work; voice or audio recordings; verbal statements; and any other record of activities during which one would not reasonably expect privacy. (This consent does NOT allow the publication of student test scores, final grades, special education classification or disciplinary records.)

Examples of media used by St. Agnes School to share the above-specified information include:

- Posting of images or publications on school website or school social media sites,
- Use of statements and interviews in school district informational brochures,
- Use of video/voice recordings in advertising or web-based publications,
- Examples of past work in curricular programs for promotional purposes,
- Use of images and statements or interviews for school professional development,
- Documenting student teaching for submission in support of certification applications,
- Communications to local media outlets. For example, images and articles about students and school activities and participation in those activities may appear in local newspapers, TV programs, district and Diocese publications (including school websites) and may personally identify students,
- Communication with other school districts, which districts may also publish or cause to be published any information within the scope of this consent,
- Any other form of communication or publication.

School publications serve a variety of purposes. Communication and publication of such media may be for educational, instructional, promotional and/or other public relations purposes. Accordingly, students may be recorded for school purposes by school employees, staff or authorized representatives.

These media artifacts are the property of St. Agnes School and will be retained indefinitely and may be used several times and in subsequent years for purposes as identified above.

Events open to the public (such as athletic games, school plays, award ceremonies, etc) do not require consent to be filmed and recorded. Such events are open to the public and recording of such events by the local news stations and newspapers is covered under separate policy.
