GRANDMA'S FAITH

READ Deuteronomy 6:1-9

Train children in the right way, and when old, they will not stray.

— Proverbs 22:6 (NRSV)

Growing up, I watched and listened as my grandma read her Bible aloud every night before she went to bed. As a child, I wondered why she did it. Watching my grandma practice her faith made me want to know God. I wanted to know what sustained and nourished her through pain and sorrow and gave her sheer joy in living. I wanted to know where my grandma found her strength. As I grew older, I understood that having a connection to her Creator gave her hope and got her through life's most difficult times.

Over and over, I return to the image of my grandma reading her Bible. From her example I have learned that God alone gives me strength in my weakness, light in my darkness, comfort in my distress, and eternal life in my death. God used my grandma's simple but profound example to help me in my own journey toward God. And as I practice my own faith today, I never know what impact it might have on someone else or how God might use me. Let us all live out our faith so that others can see and hear the love of God.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
How can I be an example of faithful witness to others?

Prayer: Dear Lord, thank you for giving us strength through your word. Help us to be witnesses of faith to others every day. Amen.
