

Strategies By Stephanie

Consultation Services

FAQs

Question: What is Strategies By Stephanie?

Answer: Strategies By Stephanie (SBS) is a consultation service that helps organizational/small business leaders increase staff productivity.

Question: Who is the leader of Strategies By Stephanie?

Answer: Stephanie Tatum began the company in 2020 and is the CEO/Founder.

Question: What does the program offer?

Answer: Enrollment into the program affords companies various professional development and educational growth opportunities. The course of direction for your plan will depend on your goals and the make-up of your team.

Question: How long is the program?

Answer: The length of the program will depend on the number of people on your team, your purpose, objectives and intended outcomes.

Question: What types of things will I learn?

Answer: Though your program plan will depend on your consultation with your consultant, some of the options include (strategic planning; identifying the purpose, mission, and vision of the organization; a review of team dynamics; critique of standard procedures; programming efforts; logic modeling; establishing protocol for conducting robust staff meetings; onboarding; etc.).

Question: What is required to participate?

Answer: Enrollment into the program requires a free consultation call, completion of an application, payment, and signing an agreement. Also, regular participation in the program is vital for growth to your organization.

To begin the first step to increase your staff's productivity during COVID-19, schedule a free consultation with Strategies By Stephanie at my website:

<https://www.strategiesbystephanie.com/>

Strategies By Stephanie
Consultation Services
www.strategiesbystephanie.com