REPORTS OF OFFICERS and COMMITTEE

Co-Chair Eldridge reminded the Planning Commission of the first meeting of the Steering Committee on Wednesday October 11, 2023 at 9AM in the Fayetteville Public Utilities conference room to discuss the initial introduction to the process and to start the Request for Qualifications (RFQ). He encouraged the public to attend.

PUBLIC BUSINESS

Commissioner Guin spoke in regards to calls from her constituents regarding billboards on 231-431 Hwy. She requested a sign ordinance be adopted in the near future and a resolution to be presented at the October 17, 2023 County Commission meeting stating no more signs or she will speak with the county attorney Ed Simms requesting he issue a resolution. Several members of the Planning Commission and the public announced these signs were on state maintained thoroughfares which were regulated by Tennessee Dept. of Transportation (TDOT), as well as some signs were on private property. Concerns were voiced that action to deter these signs could violate the first amendment. Questions arose as to who would enforce any sign ordinance if it was adopted.

ADJOURN

With no further business, Secretary Hunter moved to adjourn, second offered by Cole Blocker. Call for vote, unanimously approved. Meeting adjourned at 7:42 PM.
