The Fire Protection, Code of Virginia, Title 27; gives Authority to City to make regulations for purpose of guarding against danger of fire. Virginia Statewide Fire Prevention Code (SFPC). The fire code addresses open-flame cooking devices and liquefied-petroleum-gas-fuel cooking devices. Open flame-cooking devices shall not be operated on combustible balconies or within ten (10) feet of combustible construction. There are two exceptions; the first is for one and two-family dwellings. The second is for buildings and decks protected by an automatic fire sprinkler system. Liquefied-petroleum-gas-fueled cooking devices shall not be located on combustible balconies or within (10) ten feet of combustible construction. This section pertains to gas grills fueled by a tank greater than 2.5 pounds water capacity. The inverse of the previous sentence would allow a LP gas grill with a cylinder less than 2.5 pounds water capacity. Excluded from this regulation are one and two-family dwellings. The use (operation) of an open flame cooking device on or near combustible materials can lead to a fire that rapidly spreads to the attic space via the exterior. If you remove the half-wall and have a deck behind it, you must ensure that the deck does not distract from the aesthetics of the property. Variations from the original color will only be made upon written approval by the ACC. The ACC will consider approval of changes in exterior paint and stain only if all homeowners of the subject block have agreed in writing to comply with the proposed color scheme change. All structures and/or additions to the unit must also match the colors used in the block of townhomes. Fences shall be stained to match the house siding (not trim) or remain unstained (or changes approved by the ACC).
