Breakfast Buzz

What a great morning of networking!!

New friends and new Business contacts were made at the August 29th Breakfast Buzz sponsored by the Senior Center. A delicious breakfast was catered by Kahunas Catering. Special thanks to Director Henrietta Towry, and the Senior Center Board for hosting. If you would like to host the next Buzz or if you would like to host but just don't have the space...give us a call—we can help.

We would like to spotlight the following businesses and organizations who attended: Always Endure, Old Time Christian Outreach, The Malone Company, 1st National Bank, Redstone Federal Credit Union, Lincoln Pharmacy, Holt's IGA, Park City PC, HH Lincoln Health, Prichard's Distillery, Powerhouse Plumbing, Real Tour 360, Runergy Alabama, Inc., Leadership Lincoln, Bagley and Bagley Insurance, and Buckley Farm. Join us next time to see what all the BUZZ is about!

Ribbon Cutting @ Long John Silver's

What a wonderful way to wrap up a fun season of Music in the Park with two great groups performing to the crowd!! Mt Olive Missionary Baptist Church Men's Chorus and the Fabulous 50's singers were the entertainers for the evening. Thanks to all the folks who came out to enjoy a summer full of local music. A special thanks to all the participating groups: Strangers With Friends, Midnight Jane, Men of Fayetteville, Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church Men's Chorus, and the Fabulous 50's Singers. Thanks also for the delicious food options from Sassy Dogs, Ken's Fast Foods, Chunky Monkey, Montana Coffee, and Pizza Inn. And we can't forget "Mr. Popcorn" Jim Neale for always being on hand to give us the smell of freshly popped popcorn. We appreciate our media outlets; Elk Valley Times, WYTM, and 98.5 The Elk for promoting the music events. Music in the Park is sponsored by the City of Fayetteville, Fayetteville Parks & Recreation Department and the FLC Chamber of Commerce & Tourism Bureau. See you next season!
