TIFFANY HOLMES SELECTED AS CHAMBER EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The members of the Executive Board of the Quitman-Brooks County Chamber of Commerce are pleased to announce that Tiffany Carroll Holmes has been selected as the new Executive Director. Holmes is a lifetime Brooks County resident and a graduate of Brooks County High School. She graduated from Valdosta State University with a degree in Public Relations. After graduating from college, Holmes began her career as a real estate salesperson and then worked as the Assistant Director for the Brooks County Development Authority. Holmes is married to Stephen Holmes and they have three young children. She is actively involved in her church, First Baptist Church Quitman, and enjoys volunteering with the children and organizing programs such as AWANA and vacation bible school. Holmes believes it is important to get back to the basics. She says that hard work and personal contacts will be her immediate focus. She intends to organize several networking events for members throughout the year. Examples include a Working Women's Luncheon, Business After Hours, and Lunch and Learn events. Her goal is to help grow the Chamber, but to also provide professional service to existing members. Holmes said, "I've always had a passion for community development. This is my dream job and I look forward to helping the Chamber establish its place as a vital and necessary organization for Quitman-Brooks County."

ISAKSON STATEMENT ON PRESIDENT'S VETO OF KEYSTONE JOBS AND INFRASTRUCTURE BILL

"Tens of thousands of jobs in America -- gone. Energy independence in America -- impeded."
WASHINGTON – U.S. Senator Johnny Isakson, R-Ga., today issued the following statement after President Obama vetoed the Keystone jobs and infrastructure bill:
"Regretfully, President Obama has followed through on his promise the veto the Keystone XL pipeline. "Tens of thousands of jobs in America -- gone. Energy independence in America -- impeded. "I hope the Senate will override this veto and send it back to him so he can rethink this terrible decision and approve Keystone XL pipeline once and for all."

GEORGIA HOUSE PASSES MEDICAL MARIJUANA BILL,(FEB 26,2015)
GEORGIA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES VOTED OVERWHELMINGLY WEDNESDAY TO DECRIMINALIZE THE POSSESSION OF A FORM OF MEDICAL MARIJUANA. Under legislation House lawmakers passed 158-2 and sent on to the state Senate, Georgians who bring the marijuana derivative cannabidiol obtained outside of Georgia into the state for treatment of certain illnesses would not be subject to prosecution.

GEORGIA HOUSE APPROVES BILL TO RESTORE ABILITY TO SUE THE GOVERNMENT (FEB 26,2015) THE HOUSE VOTED OVERWHELMINGLY WEDNESDAY THE 25TH TO RESTORE the ability to sue the government for incorrectly administering laws, a tool used by activists and businesses. One day after the anniversary of the Supreme Court's unanimous decision to end the lawsuits, the House voted 154-9 in favor of House Bill 59, sending it to the Senate for consideration. The measure by House Judiciary Chairman Wendell Willard, R-Sandy Springs, provides a waiver of sovereign immunity.

Shoes that don't fit (and free salt)

A beautiful pair of shoes, but one size too small, on sale and everything.... Not worth buying, not for you, not at any price. Because shoes that don't fit aren't a bargain. And at a restaurant, you may have noticed that there's no extra charge for salt. You can have as much salt as you want on your food, for free. (Of course, it's not really free, it's part of the cost of the meal, so we paid for it, so we might as well get our money's worth, might as well use a lot.) Of course, that's silly, because regardless of how much we were billed for the salt, no matter how unlimited our access to it is, using more is merely going to ruin our meal. Too much salt isn't a bargain. Buffets (like life, organizations, projects, art...) aren't actually, "all you can eat." There, "all you care to eat." Which is something else entirely. Just because you can have it doesn't mean you want it. Just because we paid for it doesn't mean we should use all of it. Source: Seth Godin's blog

FOOD RECALLS

You may have heard some food recalls in the news recently. There are three types of product recalls.

Class I: Use of the product will likely cause serious illness or death.

Class II: Use of the product may cause temporary or reversible health effects or there is only a remote chance of serious health effects.

Class III: Use of the product is not likely to cause any serious health effects.

Two agencies handle food product recalls. USDA handles recalls related to meat, poultry and eggs. FDA is responsible for all other food products.

Follow directions given in the recall notice. These may include: Taking it back to the store where you purchased it, throwing it away, or calling the company hotline.

How do you know if you have a recalled product? Consult the recall notice and check the package date, the lot numbers, and the package codes. Never eat recalled food.

BLOND JOKE

A blonde, a redhead, and a brunette were all lost in the desert. They found a lamp and rubbed it. A genie popped out and granted them each one wish. The redhead wished to be back home. Poof! She was back home. The brunette wished to be at home with her family. Poof! She was back home with her family. The blonde said, "Awwww, I wish my friends were here."

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER
Michael A. Guido, D.D.
 Metter, Georgia

The seminary professor stood quietly before his class as though he was waiting for a traffic light to change. Wanting the class to think deep thoughts about the greatness of God's grace he asked, "Do you have any possession, do you have anything - anything - that you did not receive from the Lord?"

After a moment's thought, Len spoke up and said, "Yes!"

Startled, the professor asked in a voice of disbelief, "What?"

"Sin," came the reply.

Sin did not have its origin in God, but in Lucifer who became Satan. In Ezekiel 28:15 we read, "You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created till wickedness was found in you." Satan and sin were not and are not eternal. But sin entered into the world through Adam. Paul wrote in Romans 5:12 that "sin entered into the world through one man."

Sin, then, is a legacy - an inheritance - that is passed on from one generation to another. But it is an inheritance that we can choose to refuse.

David says we can be "blessed" if there is "no deceit in our spirit." If we express true repentance and regret for our sins, God will certainly forgive us. How fortunate we are for His love, grace and forgiveness.

If, however, we have been born again and "miss God's mark" by sinning, we can go back to Him in honesty, humility, sincerity and truth and repent.
