COMMUNITY NEWS

Commissioner Names New Legal Counsel for Juvenile Justice

Top Indigent Defense Lawyer Cindy Wang Joins DJJ Leadership Team
(DECATUR - GA) Commissioner Avery D. Niles is pleased to announce the hire of attorney Cindy Wang as the new General Counsel for the Georgia Department of Juvenile Justice. Director Wang joins the department after more than a decade as a top lawyer for Georgia's indigent defense agency. In her new role, Ms. Wang will oversee all legal issues involving the department, including individual litigation and state and federal law compliance.

State panel considers cannabis business case

Georgia is famous for square acres of peaches and blueberries. Now, say some, there's a case for a crop measured by square feet: medical marijuana. "There is a good, effective business model for what Georgia allows now," said state Rep. Allen Peake, R-Macon, just after a Wednesday hearing of the Georgia Commission on Medical Cannabis. Growing plain old illegal weed is enough of an money-maker that plenty of people in Georgia grow more than they could ever use, and plenty of them get busted.(Ga Trend)

Chinese recreational vehicle company bringing 80 jobs to Gwinnett County

A Chinese recreational vehicles company announced plans on Wednesday to open a facility near Gwinnett Place Mall, making it the second company from China to announce this week that it is coming to Gwinnett County. Linhai Powersports USA is expected to create 80 jobs over the next five years as it gets its new 6,078-square-foot facility at the Gwinnett Corporate Center, 1775 Corporate Dr., up and running. The facility will include office space and a distribution warehouse. (Ga Trend)

2015 ACT results: Georgia a leading Southern state

Staff reports that 2015 ACT results shows Georgia at the top of the pack among Southern states, outperforming Alabama, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, Arkansas, Florida, West Virginia, South Carolina and Texas. Georgia students also scored higher than those in Colorado, Illinois, Michigan, Montana, North Dakota, Utah, Wyoming, Arkansas, Hawaii and Arizona. (Ga Trend)

Georgia colleges recruit researchers

Pending about $12 million to recruit eight world-class scientists and 60 of their colleagues is bringing Georgia universities more than $27 million in federal research grants, the Georgia Research Alliance announced. Half of the recruitment costs for lab space and equipment were borne by taxpayer appropriations from the General Assembly with the balance from donations. The mostly federal research grants cover nearly all expenses to pay and equip the 60 scientists who follow what the alliance called the "eminent scholars" they recruit.(Ga Trend)

Delta adding flights to London and Edinburgh

Staff reports that the Delta Air Lines Inc. (NYSE: DAL) and Virgin Atlantic joint venture will start nonstop service from Salt Lake City to London Heathrow and New York-JFK to Edinburgh, Scotland, in May 2016. Salt Lake City will be Atlanta-based Delta's eighth U.S. destination from Heathrow and the only nonstop service between London and the Mountain West. (Ga Trend)

Georgia DNR board considering new duck hunting, fishing regulations

Outdoors enthusiasts could face changes in what they can bring home from hunting and fishing trips based proposed changes in regulations up for votes by the Georgia Board of Natural Resources. The board is expected to vote in two months on increasing the minimum size on spotted seatrout, a prized salt water species, from 13 inches to 14 inches and Wednesday on increasing the limit on canvasback ducks. (Ga Trend)

Health insurance rates could climb significantly

Health insurance policyholders might see premium increases as high as 38 percent next year, a Gainesville insurance executive told a Gainesville audience Tuesday. Proposed rates vary from 12 percent for Blue Cross Blue Shield's small group plans to 38 percent for Alliant Health Plans, said Brett Fowler, vice president and partner of Turner, Wood & Smith Insurance, speaking at the Greater Hall Chamber of Commerce's fourth annual health care reform update. The Raping of America: Mile Markers on the Road to Fascism

“Freedom is never voluntarily given by the oppressor; it must be demanded by the oppressed.”—Martin Luther King Jr.

There’s an ill will blowing across the country. The economy is tanking. The people are directionless, and politics provides no answer. And like former regimes, the militarized police have stepped up to provide a façade of law and order manifested by an overt violence against the citizenry.

Despite the revelations of the past several years, nothing has changed to push back against the American police state. Our freedoms—especially the Fourth Amendment—continue to be choked out by a prevailing view among government bureaucrats that they have the right to search, seize, strip, scan, spy on, probe, pat down, taser, and arrest any individual at any time and for the slightest provocation.

Despite the recent outrage and protests, nothing has changed to restore us to our rightful role as having dominion over our bodies, our lives and our property, especially when it comes to interactions with the government.

Special Forced cavity searches, forced colonoscopies, forced blood draws, forced breath-alcohol tests, forced DNA extractions, forced eye scans, forced inclusion in biometric databases—these are just a few ways in which Americans continue to be reminded that we have no control over what happens to our bodies during an encounter with government officials. Thus far, the courts have done little to preserve our Fourth Amendment rights, let alone what shreds of bodily integrity remain to us.

Indeed, on a daily basis, Americans are being forced to relinquish the most intimate details of who we are—our biological makeup, our genetic blueprints, and our biometrics (facial characteristics and structure, fingerprints, iris scans, etc.)—in order to clear the nearly insurmountable hurdle that increasingly defines life in the United States.

In other words, we are all guilty until proven innocent. Worst of all, it seems as if nothing will change as long as the American people remain distracted by politics, divided by their own prejudices, and brainwashed into believing that the Constitution still reigns supreme as the law of the land, when in fact, we have almost completed the shift into fascism.

First, however, Americans must break free of the apathy-inducing turpor of politics, entertainment spectacles and manufactured news. Only once we are free of the chains that bind us—or to be more exact, the chains that “blind” us—can we become actively aware of the injustices taking place around us and demand freedom from our oppressors.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER
Michael A. Guido, D.D.
Minister, Georgia

One of the major influences in our society today is the emphasis on being "politically correct." The threat or possibility of offending anyone about anything at any time has silenced many of us. We fear that we will be condemned or criticized. Unfortunately, many Christians now remain silent when opportunities to speak of or for their faith arise. Rather than defending the gospel we have become fearful of offending others even if their values are wrong and beliefs unscriptural. Being politically correct was not a problem for David. In fact, it was the exact opposite. He was not ashamed to speak boldly and publicly about God's involvement in his life. He had no hesitancy or fear to talk about his relationship with God. Once at a very special occasion in front of a large crowd he said, "I proclaim righteousness in the great assembly!" He put his faith on public display.

He had been through an intense struggle with God. It must have been both long and difficult. But finally, his patience and perseverance, his respect and reverence for God were rewarded and his prayer was finally answered. As he reflected on God's goodness and thought about His mercy and blessings, he could not contain himself. Al speak of your faithfulness - Your salvation, love and truth," he proclaimed. Al do not seal...I could not conceal...my gratitude." If we were taking about this event today, we would say that David Agave his testimony to a large gathering." However, it was not the size of the group that mattered to David. It was his need Ato proclaim" God's salvation and faithfulness to others. He could not be contained when it came to sharing his faith.

Prayer to HOLY SPIRIT

HOLY SPIRIT, you who make me see everything and show me the way to reach my ideal. You who give me the Divine gift to forgive and forget the wrong that has been done to me, and you who are in all instances of my life, with me, I, in this short dialogue want to thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great material desires may be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. Amen.

Say this three consecutive days, asking for your wish, After the third day, wish will be granted, no matter how difficult. Promise to publish this dialogue as soon as your wish is granted as mine was.

Thank you very much. V.R.

Small Brown Bottle

The other day I went over to a nearby Shopper's Drug Mart.

When I got there, I went straight to the back of the store to where the Pharmacists' Counter is located.

I took out my little brown bottle along with a teaspoon and laid them both onto the counter.

The pharmacist came over smiled and asked if he could help me.

I said, "Yes! Could you please taste this for me?"

Being I'm a senior citizen... I guess the Pharmacist just went along with me.

He picked up the spoon and put a tiny bit of the liquid on his tongue and swilled it around.

Then with a stomach-churning look on his face he spit it out on the floor and began coughing.

When he finally was finished, I looked him right in the eye and asked, "Now, does that taste sweet to you?"

The pharmacist, shaking his head back and forth with a venomous look in his eyes yelled, "HECK NO!!!"

So I said, "Oh thank God! That's a real relief! My doctor told me to get a pharmacist to test my urine for sugar!"

Well, I can never go back to that Shopper's Drug Mart, but I really don't care, because they aren't very friendly there anyway!

SALMONELLA FOOD SAFETY

We hear a lot in the news about Salmonella. This can cause a foodborne illness, what we commonly call food poisoning. Children, elderly, and people who have been previously very sick are at higher risk of getting a foodborne illness.

Salmonella live in the intestines of birds, animals and humans. Most human infections are caused by eating food or drinking water that has been contaminated by feces.

Some kitchen practices may contaminate fruits and vegetables if someone handles raw meat and then touches fruit without washing their hands.

Fruits and vegetables can be contaminated if fruit and vegetables have been watered or washed in contaminated water.

There are 4 main actions that you can take to help protect you and your family: Clean, Separate, Cook, and Chill.

For more information on these food safety practices contact Roxie Price, Family and Consumer Sciences Agent with UGA Extension in Tift County.
