COMMUNITY NEWS

Barwick, (02-16-16), Central Park to get a Fit Trail. At the regular scheduled council meeting the Council voted unanimously voted to purchase an exercise Fit Trail consisting of 10 stations. Once completed it will consist of 10 stations and will enable outdoor recreation for all ages and from walkers to mothers with babies in strollers, from young to old. Estimated to be finished sometime in April 2016.

In other news the council voted to sell their two aged police cars to the City of Abbeville, Ga for $8500, as is.

Georgia Regents announce no tuition increase for the 2016-2017 academic year.

Parents and college students got a break on tuition Tuesday when the University System of Georgia' chancellor announced a one-year freeze as lawmakers are considering legislation to cap tuition at the inflation rate. (Ga Trend)

Georgia Craft Breweries Want To Sell You Beer

Craft beer breweries in Georgia are fighting to get their beer directly to consumers. Distributors, called Wholesalers, are responsible for getting beer from the brewery to the market. Now brewers are saying they need more control. Orpheus Brewing in midtown Atlanta has an impressive outfit. They are launching a dark bitter Ale, something Founder Andrew Lorber wants to sell to customers. (Ga Trend)

Dublin VA to build multi-million dollar mental health building

The Carl Vinson VA Medical Center in Dublin is planning to build a new mental health clinic expected to cost between $5 million and $10 million. The center already has issued a pre-solicitation, which gives builders a heads up that bids will soon be accepted for the project. Fred Williams, the hospital's chief engineer, said he hopes to award a bid in March, and construction would begin sometime this summer. (Ga Trend)

Senators Isakson, Perdue Blast Troop Cuts in President Obama's Budget Proposal Call for action to restore Army funding, troop levels to meet current needs of military

WASHINGTON – In the face of growing global threats to our national security, U.S. Senators Johnny Isakson, R-Ga., and David Perdue, R-Ga., are denouncing the continued draw-down in U.S. Army troop levels after President Barack Obama's final budget request to Congress last week included a $1.4 billion reduction from the Army's approved fiscal year 2016 budget. The president's fiscal year 2017 budget provides funding for an Army end strength number of 460,000 troops, down from its height of 566,000 in fiscal year 2014. The cuts included in the president's budget request would affect military bases in Georgia as well as in Alaska, Hawaii, Texas and Washington. The Georgia senators are urging action to reverse cuts in the Army's budget proposal and restore funding to keep Army end strength at levels necessary to meet increasing threats around the world. In July 2015, the Department of Defense announced the reduction in Army forces included cuts of 4,350 soldiers from military installations in Georgia as part of the Department's plans to reduce the Army nationwide by 40,000 soldiers, from the current level of 490,000 soldiers to 450,000, by the end of 2017. Those cuts included a net loss of approximately 950 soldiers at Fort Stewart in Hinesville, Ga., and a net loss of 3,400 soldiers at Fort Benning in Columbus, Ga.

The senators vowed to continue to demand more answers and to push for soldiers to be added to Georgia bases.

Florida Winners of Historic $1.58B Powerball Jackpot Revealed by Corky Siemaszko

The Florida winners of the historic $1.58 billion Powerball drawing stepped forward Wednesday to collect their portion of the prize.

Maureen Smith and David Kaltschmidt, Long Island transplants who have lived in Melbourne Beach since 1991, made their debut more than a month after the Florida Lottery announced that one of the winning tickets in the Jan. 13 lottery was purchased in their town.

The married couple has opted to take a lump sum of $327 million.

"No," Smith said, when asked if she had any plans for the money beyond getting a massage. "We have to think about it. ... I just know I want to help the special people in my life."

"I will be retiring," added Kaltschmidt, a longtime engineer with Northrop Grumman, who intends to replace his aging truck. Kaltschmidt said he didn't believe it when his wife told him they were winners. "I thought, she's messing with me," he said.

Smith said it was hard to keep their secret from their family and friends. Her husband agreed.

"I lost 10 pounds," he said. "There was a lot of pacing at night."

The couple has set up a trust called the Nickel 95 Trust to manage the dough. They declined to explain the name, divulge whether they have children, or discuss their May-December marriage — he's 55. She's 70.

Two other lucky families also picked the winning numbers 8-27-34-4-19 and 10: John and Lisa Robinson of Munford, Tennessee; and an as-yet-undisclosed ticket-holder in Chino Hills, California.

The Robinson family also chose to take their jackpot in the form of a lump sum.

"We're not guaranteed tomorrow. You just can't sit down, lay down and not do nothing anymore," John Robinson told TODAY. "How long you going to last?"

Odds of having a winning ticket were placed at 1 in 292 million. Source: Flipboard

GLOVES OFF: US hits ISIS targets in Libya after months of debate

U.S. warplanes carried out airstrikes Friday that targeted an ISIS base and a senior militant believed to be behind two deadly attacks against Western tourists in Tunisia last year.

A senior U.S. official told Fox News that the target of the airstrike was Nouredine Chouchane, a senior ISIS figure in Libya. A defense official speaking to The Associated Press said Chouchane was "likely killed."

The airstrike on the base in Sabratha, west of Tripoli, was carried out by F-15s.

Local reports initially suggested that more than 30 people had been killed. However, it was not immediately clear how many ISIS terrorists were among the dead.

Chouchane is thought to have directed the March 18 attack on the Bardo Museum in Tunis, in which 24 people were killed, many of them foreign tourists. He is also believed to have some connection to the June 26 attack on a resort hotel near the Tunisian city of Sousse, where an ISIS gunman killed 38 people. President Barack Obama last week directed his national security team to bolster counterterrorism efforts in Libya while also pursuing diplomatic possibilities for solving its political crisis and forming a government of national unity. While ISIS has emerged in other places, including Afghanistan, Libya is seen as its key focus outside of Syria and Iraq.

The U.S. military has been closely monitoring ISIS movements in Libya, and small teams of U.S. military personnel have moved in and out of the country over a period of months. British, French and Italian special forces also have been in Libya helping with aerial surveillance, mapping and intelligence gathering in several cities, including Benghazi in the east and Zintan in the west, according to two Libyan military officials who are coordinating with them. The Libyan officials spoke on condition of anonymity recently with The Associated Press on this matter because they were not authorized to speak to the press.

U.S. officials predicted early this month that it would be weeks or longer before U.S. special forces would be sent, citing the need for more consultations with European allies. Additional intelligence would help refine targets for any sort of military strikes, but surveillance drones are in high demand elsewhere, including in Syria, Iraq and Afghanistan.

Adding to the concern in Washington and Europe is evidence that the number of ISIS fighters in Libya is increasing - now believed to be up from about 2,000 to 5,000 - even as the group's numbers in Syria and Iraq are shrinking under more unrelenting U.S. and coalition airstrikes.

Apple Pecan Cream Pie

INGREDIENTS

- 1 (21 ounce) can apple pie filling
- 2 tablespoons firmly packed brown sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans
- 1 prepared 9-inch graham cracker crust
- 1/2 cup cold milk
- 1/2 cup half-and-half or 1/2 cup light cream
- 1 (3 1/2 ounce) package vanilla instant pudding and pie filling
- 1 1/2 cups frozen whipped topping, thawed (1 8oz container equals 3 1/2 cups)

DIRECTIONS

In a large bowl combine the apple pie filling, brown sugar and cinnamon; stir in pecans.

Spread half of the mixture in the pie crust; refrigerate the remaining mixture.

Place the milk and the half and half in a medium sized bowl; add the pudding mix.

Beat with a wire whisk until well blended, about 1 to 2 minutes. Gently stir in the whipped topping.

Spoon the pudding mixture over the apple mixture in the pie crust.

Freeze for at least 2 hours before serving.

Remove from freezer about 10 minutes before serving and garnish with reserved apple mixture and additional whipped topping.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER
Michael A. Guido, D.D.
Metter, Georgia

"Help me, someone help me! I've fallen and can't get up. Someone help me, please!" cried a lady in obvious pain and distress. Actually, there was no real person calling for help. It was a television commercial advertising personal security systems for people who live alone and might need help if they were to fall or were having a difficult time and had no one to rescue them.

All of us know that feeling of being helpless, perhaps even hopeless at times. Problems surface, or seem to descend from the sky when we least expect them. We know they are beyond us, recognize our limits and cry out for help. Life's demands are beyond us. They force us to see that we cannot take care of ourselves by ourselves. We are forced to reach out and up. There is something inside all of us that tells each of us that life is beyond every one of us. That "something" is a gift from God. He wants us to search for Someone. It begins at birth when we utter that first cry for help not knowing who will respond. It only ends when we turn to Him.

Most of us have turned to God recognizing His power and strength and desire to help us. That need for Him is normal and natural because He planted it there when He created us. He knew we would search for Him and He also knew that He would respond in love when we call on Him to make us complete in Christ.

David said those who say "there is no God are fools." Are they dumb or stupid or ignorant? No! They are fools because they choose to live life without God.

Prayer to HOLY SPIRIT

HOLY SPIRIT, you who make me see everything and show me the way to reach my ideal. You who give me the Divine gift to forgive and forget the wrong that has been done to me, and you who are in all instances of my life, with me, I, in this short dialogue want to thank you for everything and confirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great material desires may be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. Amen.

Say this three consecutive days, asking for your wish, After the third day, wish will be granted, no matter how difficult. Promise to publish this dialogue as soon as your wish is granted as mine was.

Thank you very much. G.S.

DOG HUMOR

A dog went to a telegraph office, took out a blank form and wrote: "Woof. Woof. Woof. Woof. Woof. Woof. Woof. Woof." The clerk examined the paper and politely told the dog, "There are only nine words here. You could send another 'Woof' for the same price." The dog replied, "But that would make no sense at all!"

Pea, Ham, and Potato

Ingredients

- 2 1/2 lbs fresh uncured ham
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 tbsp. olive oil
- 1 onion, finely chopped
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 1 tbsp. Dijon mustard
- 3 garlic cloves, finely chopped
- Handful of thyme leaves only
- 3 cups hot beef stock for the slow cooker
- About 4 cups frozen peas
- 3 potatoes, peeled and chopped into bite-sized pieces

Directions

Slow cooker method:
Prep, 15 minutes; Cook, Auto/Low 8 hrs or High 4 hours; THEN Auto/Low 8 hrs or High 4 hrs
Preheat the slow cooker, if required. Sit the ham and bay leaf in the slow cooker and cover with 3 cups of water. Cover and cook on auto/low for 8 hours or on high for 4 hours, then remove the ham and set aside. Discard the stock, or strain and reserve a little to add to the soup.
Heat the oil in a large heavy-based pan over medium heat, add the onion, and cook for 3-4 minutes until soft. Season with salt and pepper, then stir in the mustard, garlic, and herbs (reserve some thyme leaves for garnish). Add a little stock and bring to a boil, then add in the peas (if you prefer pureed, pulse them gently in a food processor or use an immersion blender). Transfer to the slow cooker, add the remaining stock and the potatoes, cover, and cook on auto/low for 8 hours or on high for 4 hours. Remove any fat from the ham, chop into bite-sized pieces, and stir into the soup. Taste and season as needed. Garnish with reserved the thyme leaves and serve with whole grain bread.

Freezes for 3 months.
