Courses Taught this Spring

Spring has been a busy but productive time for Worldwide Preacher Training. I made a trip to the Philippines in February to speak on the lectureship at Asian Christian University, preach in local congregations, and participate in a leadership workshop where I focused on preaching and preachers. I also taught the following courses during the spring:

Asian Christian University – Old Testament Wisdom and Poetical Books; Advanced Introduction to the New Testament (Graduate Course)

Middle Tennessee School of Preaching (Culleoka, TN) – Hebrews

Nashville School of Preaching – Revelation; Great Chapters of the Bible

Somerset West School of Preaching (South Africa) – Minor Prophets

Upcoming Commentaries

In addition to teaching and making the trip to the Philippines, I completed a commentary on Hebrews that I intend to use for a textbook. It should be available sometime in May for purchase through Amazon and other outlets. I am now working on a commentary on the book of Revelation.

Graduates of the Nashville (L) and Middle Tennessee (R) Schools of Preaching and Biblical Studies

Graduation in Schools of Preaching and Biblical Studies

March and April provided occasions for celebration in two schools of preaching and biblical studies. The Middle Tennessee School of Preaching and Biblical Studies celebrated their annual graduation on March 31. Husband and wife, Mark and Kathy Lytle, graduated together. Mark and Kathy are dear friends and former neighbors. They enrolled in classes to build their knowledge of the scriptures. Both are members of the Cedar Grove congregation in Rogersville, Alabama.

The Nashville School of Preaching and Biblical Studies celebrated their annual graduation on April 8 with five graduates. The graduates were: Robert Lambert (Preacher Track), Tim McElroy (Preacher Track), Marty Neal, Fred McGee, and Maurice Nunnally. Most of these men are currently preaching or filling-in, and each is very capable of preaching fulltime.

Zoom Courses to begin in May

I will be teaching a couple of short courses via Zoom for the Nashville School of Preaching this summer. A May 4-6 course will be titled, “The Ministry of the Word.” Preachers will especially find the course to be helpful. The class will be conducted from 6-8 pm on May 4, 5 and from 8 am – 12 pm CST on May 6.

From June 1-3 I will teach a course titled: “Principles of Church Growth from the Book of Acts.” Classes on June 1, 2 will run from 6-8 pm. Saturday June 3 will go from 8 am – 12pm CST.

The classes are open to everyone, including you! If you would like to enroll in these classes, email me at: andyerwin@gospelgleaner.com
