Wednesday's Featured Speakers & Events

Wednesday Speaker at 10:20 am S'more or Some Less: "Preparing for the Next Generation of Older Adults" Marilyn Mock

This program delves into the unique characteristics and preferences of different generations, with a special focus on designing engaging activities for older adults. By understanding the diverse experiences and values that shape each generation, we can create meaningful and enjoyable programming that resonates with older participants.

Wednesday Speaker at 1:15 pm "The Generational Recipe for Success: Ingredients for Building a Strong Intergenerational Senior Center Team" Marilyn Mock

In this session attendees will learn how to build a strong intergenerational team by understanding the values and differences each generation offers.

Wednesday Speaker at 2:30 pm Interactive Arts Program Karen Woods

Karen Wood—an Arts in Education (AIE) Coordinator, along with 5 local artists, will lead a hands-on art experience session. Participants will rotate between stations, engaging in activities at each one to explore what your senior center members could enjoy.

The session will feature the following teaching artists:

- ⇒ Adam Swartz - Puppetry
- ⇒ Cathy Herrera - Music/flutes from around the world
- ⇒ Kelly Cunningham - Visual Arts
- ⇒ Ann Van Kuren - Dance
- ⇒ Grace Fala - Storytelling

This is a small, but varied, sample of the art residency programs available through the AIE partners of the PA Council on the Arts, with each program designed to enrich your older adults' lives!

Wednesday Roundtables at 3:30 pm

AARP® Sponsored by AARP

Driver's Safety

Thursday's Featured Speakers

Thursday Speaker at 8:00 am “S’more Legislative Updates” w/ Roy Afflerbach

Roy will give updates on what’s happening in the Capitol with regard to the Department of Aging and older adults. Roy always provides us with pertinent information and ways we can show our support.

Thursday Annual Meeting at 8:30 am

Renee Cunningham, President of PASC

With PASC being a member-based organization, we are required to hold an annual meeting. What better time than when we’re all together at the annual conference? Join us to learn more about PASC and what’s in store for the coming year.

Thursday Speaker at 9:15 am

“Lessons Learned from our 10-Year Journey to Change the Culture of Aging” Cathy Bollinger

Cathy Bollinger is honored to carry on the legacy of donor Anna Gardner, who over 110 years ago gifted her estate to assure York County residents can have the best quality of life possible as we age. This legacy supports York County Community Foundation’s Embracing Aging initiative, which launched in fall 2013 and TroveStreet® initiative, which launched in 2022.

With ten years of varying successes and challenges behind us, Embracing Aging continues to navigate our unique role in reframing the stigma of aging and building an age-equitable community.

Participants will gain knowledge of our lessons learned and receive practical tips to help them accelerate their own culture change work to enhance people’s aging experiences.

PASC Conference Committee Members:

Melody Bartusek - Luzerne County

Becky Klepadlo - Wayne County

Rachael Kiwak - Luzerne County

Lisa Krout - York County

Thursday Speaker at 10:30 am

“Maximizing Volunteer Engagement for Mission Success” Betsy McFarland

Betsy McFarland is a strategist focused on empowering staff and volunteers addressing societal issues. With 18 years at The Humane Society of the United States, she transformed programs for animal shelters and rescues, earning accolades for pioneering efforts. A Certified Volunteer Administrator, Betsy has extensive experience in volunteer engagement and strategy development, having launched the Humane Society National Volunteer Center. She leads Energize, a program of Adisa, providing training and consulting in volunteerism. Betsy authored "Volunteer Management for Animal Care Organizations" and developed a research-supported Volunteer Program Assessment model with the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. She holds an Executive Certificate in Facilitation and Organizational Consulting from Georgetown University.

Thursday Speaker at 12 pm

“Navigating the Future: Empowering Senior Centers through AI and ChatGPT” Andrew Mayer

This session explores the transformative potential of artificial intelligence, focusing on tools like ChatGPT, to enhance operations at senior centers. We'll delve into how AI can improve management efficiency, bolster communication, and offer personalized support to seniors. Attendees will gain actionable insights to effectively integrate these technologies into their services. Participants are encouraged to bring their laptops, tablets or smartphones.

Jenna Lawrence - York County

Bobbi Manges - HBF AAA

Pat MacKenzie - Montgomery County

Kasie Ream - York County

Samantha Schrecengost - Clarion AAA
