Facebook

Be very wary when looking for a new home for your pet online/FB; confirm the person is trustworthy and will properly care for your cat. It's best to give your cat to a trusted family member or friend.

Vet/Atascadero State Hospital bulletin board in lobby

Cat friendly (ask permission at desk).

Be wary when advertising your pet via flyers & online.

The safety and wellbeing of your animal should be the #1 priority.

We recommend not advertising pets for adoption on social media unless you know the adopter and can confirm it's a safe and responsible home. We recommend performing a home-check and NEVER offer cats or kittens as “free”. Unfortunately many criminals seek out free animals for use in dogfighting, animal testing, or to abuse.

Tips:

- Always charge a rehoming fee. People looking for animals to abuse usually won't pay a fee.
- Perform a home visit
- Ask for personal references
- Ask for a vet reference
- Check animal abuser registries
- Google the person
- Be prepared to take the animal back
- Have the adopter sign a pet adoption contract
- Be Wary of Craigslist
