30				THANKSGIVING DAY

*Here we are, closing out another year,
29 to be exact... oh dear!
The holidays draw near, and soon you'll see,
Angie and Hanna on the floor, running free.*

*Though the heat may rise, and the air grow warm,
They still look stunning, in their daily norm.
Sadie and Elisabeth sing in the back,
But don't worry—your food's on track.*

*Dean and Adam, out back on a break,
While Amy's in here, cheesecake to bake.
Ethan, Kami, Peyton, and Cheyanne,
Clear your tables with a cheerful hand.*

*The dishes pile up, filling Jeremy's sink,
After a busy night—faster than you think!
We're grateful, thankful, and full of cheer,
Serving up breakfast, pizza, and onion rings, year after year.*

*Reubens, too, for a hearty bite,
Until the last customer says "goodnight."
We're proud to be part of this town we adore,
Without you all, we'd have so much less in store.*

*We know your order, even if names escape,
No matter the hour, we're here with a smile, no mistake.
So remember to shop local, keep us alive,
That's how our town's businesses continue to thrive!*

*Merry Christmas to all, regulars, newcomers, and more,
We thank you so much for walking through our door.
And if you ever need a warm meal, come by or call,
We're here for you, through it all.*

Merry Christmas
