PARENTS' RULES

Like most teenage kids, I liked posters — and I had some classics. The Farrah Fawcett red swimsuit poster. The Evel Knievel wheelie and cape poster. And more KISS posters than I could count.

The problems were where — and how — I could hang them.

Of course, my bedroom was the only room in the house where my posters would be allowed. Mom didn't think the Fonz should be hung up in the kitchen. I understood.

Mom's rules on how posters could be applied to the wall were the real trick. Pushing thumbtacks into the sheetrock was out of the question, as that left holes in the walls. Using tape to adhere them to the walls might work, if it was the right tape that didn't take off paint or leave residue behind. And that chewing-gum-like stuff that was supposed to stick to the poster and the wall sounded great, except it left an oil-like stain on the posters.

The last option was the only option, at least from Mom's perspective. She didn't really care what happened to my posters, but the walls were not to be marked up in any way. Period.

Do you ever notice how some of your parents' rules stick with you throughout your lifetime? Mom's instructions on not using thumbtacks and tape were based on her being the one having to patch and paint the walls in our home. When my kids were wanting to hang posters in their rooms, I had the same rules — and I wasn't even the one who painted.

Mom's rules also apply at our workplace today. I cringe when I see items that employees have taped or thumbtacked into walls or woodwork, as I know how much I paid to have those walls painted or woodwork repaired. I gladly supply bulletin boards to anyone who needs them, but some folks just can't resist the temptation to tape, staple or push tacks into sheetrock.

How about you? Which of your parents' rules stuck with you for a lifetime? Shoot me a note and let me know.

Have a great week, and thanks for reading. ■

DALLAS COUNTY CONSERVATION PROGRAMS

FIRST-TIMER FAUNA AND FLORA PHOTOGRAPHY

June 1, 7-8:30 p.m.

Kuehn Conservation Area

32849 Houston Trail, Earlham

Practice slowing down to notice beautiful intricate details of the natural world so you can capture them in images to last forever. The event starts with an informal presentation and discussion, then finishes with a hike around Kuehn to look for photo subjects during the evening "Golden Hour." Tom Moss, nature photographer and master conservationist, will be the guest presenter. Registration required online at DccbPhotography.eventbrite.com.

INFORMATIONAL SESSION: DALLAS COUNTY VOLUNTEER WATER QUALITY MONITORING PROGRAM

June 3, 11 a.m. to noon OR 1-2 p.m.

Forest Park Museum, Perry

DCCB needs your help to discover more about what's going on in our watersheds. This is not a training and requires no commitment, but it's a chance to ask questions and see if this new program is right for you. According to the DNR's statewide 2022 Impaired Waters Report, only 15 out of 2,617 waterbody segments (that's 0.57%) could be declared to meet all their designated uses. Only 13% were labeled as "healthy." Part of the reason why these numbers are so dismal is because data is absent or insufficient from nearly 60% of our state's identified waterbody segments. For this reason, DCCB is starting a volunteer-based water quality monitoring program to help fill gaps in data and provide information to the public. Once a month, volunteers would collect and share chemical data from their assigned stream site(s) using simple field tests. Registration required online at DccbWaterQuality.eventbrite.com. Email Zach.Moss@DallasCountyIowa.gov if you are interested in learning more but can't attend this session.

IOWA FOLKLORE

June 4, 1:30-2:30 p.m.

Forest Park Museum, Perry

Join Dallas County Conservation to take a look at traditional sayings and beliefs in our state. Bring your own tales, too! Register to be notified of weather cancelation. <https://DccbIowaFolklore.eventbrite.com>

SUMMER YOUTH VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

June 8-July 13, Thursdays, 8 a.m. to noon

Voas Nature Area, 19286 Lexington Road, Minburn

Is your child interested in a meaningful summer of service in the outdoors? Dallas County Conservation Board will once again host a Summer Youth Volunteer Program for students ages 10-14. The group will continue working on a savanna restoration project begun six years ago by other Summer Youth at Voas, as well as participate in an educational component, and have plenty of time to enjoy nature play. Contact DCCB at 515-465-3577 or e-mail mike.havlik@dallascountyiowa.gov. *Registration is required and will be on a first-come, first-serve basis, as space is limited. Only register if your child can attend the majority of dates. ■

ADEL MEMORIAL DAY CEREMONY

The Adel American Legion Penoch Post 464 invites the public to attend the Memorial Day Ceremony at Adel Oakdale Cemetery on Monday, May 29, starting at 9 a.m. This day is an opportunity to give thanks to the veterans who have died and the loved ones left behind to make sure that their sacrifices are remembered and that their service to this nation will always be honored. Bring a lawn chair; no seating is available. In case of inclement weather, the ceremony will not be held. ■

ADEL AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY DISTRIBUTES POPPIES

Visit the Adel Fareway Store on Friday, May 26, and on Saturday, May 27, to receive your poppy in honor of military veterans, the military and their families. Inspired by the poem "In Flanders Fields" by Col. John McCrea, the custom of wearing the poppy can be traced back to World War I.

"In Flanders fields the poppies blow, Between the crosses row on row. That mark our places; and in the sky the larks, still bravely singing, fly, Scarce heard amid the guns below."

With more than 100 years of rich tradition, National Poppy Day on May 26 stands as a powerful reminder of the cost of our freedom. ■

RECIPE

UNFORGETTABLE FRUITY FLAVOR

(Family Features) Summertime often brings cravings for fresh fruits that add a hint of sweetness to warm-weather gatherings. Serving up a delicious dessert for family and guests starts with favorite produce in this Lemon Cheesecake with Fruit.

The touch of tangy tartness is enough to bring loved ones to the dessert table even after a filling meal as fresh lemon juice in the cheesecake base is complemented perfectly when topped with orange slices and raspberries. Garnished with mint leaves, this brightly colored treat is even sweeter when shared with loved ones. ■

LEMON CHEESECAKE WITH FRUIT

Servings: 6-8

- 1 1/4 cups graham cracker crumbs
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup butter, melted
- 2 packages (8 ounces each) cream cheese, softened
- 1 can (14 ounces) sweetened condensed milk
- 3 eggs
- 1/4 cup fresh lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 orange, peeled and separated
- 8 raspberries
- 3 mint leaves, for garnish

Directions:

Preheat oven to 350 F.

In medium bowl, combine graham cracker crumbs, sugar and melted butter. Press firmly into 9-inch springform pan.

In large bowl, beat cream cheese until fluffy.

Gradually beat in sweetened condensed milk until smooth. Add eggs, fresh lemon juice and vanilla extract; mix until combined.

Pour into pan. Bake 50-55 minutes, or until center springs back when lightly pressed.

Chill in refrigerator until completely cooled. Arrange orange slices around border of cake and place raspberries in middle. Top with mint leaves.

FILM REVIEWS

By Michael C. Woody

'SUPER MARIO BROTHERS'

Huge month in the theaters for those less than 3 foot tall. "Super Mario Brothers" opened in early May and has dominated the box office every week since. As I write this, the movie has made $434 million dollars. If only it had been good. The film wasn't made for me, so I'll give it a pass this time. Obviously, its target audience loved it.

Grade: C+

"SUPER MARIO BROTHERS"

'GUY RITCHIE'S THE COVENANT'

With "Operation Fortune" a couple of months ago, "Guy Ritchie" has turned in two of the most enjoyable movies of the year to date. This one follows an American soldier in Afghanistan who is injured and flown home to recuperate. When he finds that his former Afghan translator is in hiding and being hunted, he takes it upon himself to go back and save him. Jake Gyllenhaal brilliantly plays this soldier, and the movie is really emotional and entertaining. It is a really strong story about two men thrown together by fate. Grade: A-

"GUY RITCHIE'S THE COVENANT"

'PAINT'

Owen Wilson plays Carl Nargle, Vermont's No. 1 public television painter. Think Bob Ross, but you will see why his estate probably squashed that idea. The highlight of the film (and there are only a few) is seeing Wilson in the Ross afro. After that, the movie slides downhill fast. Wilson plays this character as a serial philanderer and not a very bright man. I think this could have been really good, but it's not even close. Grade: C- ■

"PAINT"

Michael C. Woody has been reviewing movies on radio and television since 1986 and can be heard talking movies every Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. on KXn0 106.3 with Keith Murphy and Andy Fales. You can also follow him on Twitter at MrMovieDSM.

SHERRYL SUE MCAVOY

Sherryl Sue McAvoy was born March 23, 1949, in St. Joseph, Missouri, to Harry and Irene Kephart. She graduated from Central High School there in 1967, then attended Drake University in Des Moines for one year before transferring to Northwest Missouri State University where she met her future husband, Jon, in a Social Dance class. They were married Sept. 6, 1969.

They moved to Des Moines where Jon had taken a job at Bankers Life (now Principal). She worked at the Register & Tribune Syndicate where she was secretary to the president of the company. In 1976, Sherryl became the mother of twins, Sean and Megan. The family moved to Adel in 1978 and remained there.

Sherryl was an active volunteer, serving as secretary of the board for the nonprofit Adel Childcare Center and serving as volunteer and treasurer at the Adel Food Pantry. She also volunteered at her kids' schools and was a member of the Adel Federates Club. She was a 47-year member of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Des Moines where she was a member of the Presbyterian Women's Club and organized an annual fundraising craft fair. She was named small group coordinator for the congregation and taught Bible studies.

She is survived by her husband, Jon, of 54 years; her son, Sean (Chris), and their kids Cynnavia and Grayson; and her daughter, Megan, and her kids, Kellan, Braedon and McKenna.

Memorial contributions can be made to the Presbyterian Women of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Des Moines. ■

DENA BRICKER MCGLOTHIN

Dena Bricker McGlothlin, 89, died May 16, 2023, at Spurgeon Manor in Dallas Center. Dena was born Dec. 25, 1933, in Perry to Christian and Mary Bricker. She married David McGlothlin on Dec. 25, 1957.

The funeral service was held Tuesday, May 24, at Iles Brandt Chapel.

Dena was a member of Old Order River Brethren Church.

She is survived by her children, Daniel McGlothlin and wife Susan, Nitavonne Herr and husband Jerome, and Daphene McGlothlin; Daniel's children: Ariel, Athalie, Hadasha, Zack, Micah and Jerusha; Nitavonne's children: Jessica and Caryn; and nine great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, David; grandson, Jeremy McGlothlin; and brother, Roy Bricker. ■
