WHAT HAPPENED TO THE COIN POUCH?

When I pay for things with cash, I often throw the coins in a nook on the console of my vehicle. When the coins start piling up, I toss them in my pocket, and they usually end up in my desk drawer, waiting to be exchanged for a Snickers bar in our office vending machines.

When I picked up the coins recently, I thought of those pocket-sized, rubber, oval-shaped coin pouches that seemingly everyone had when I was a kid. Whatever happened to those things?

As I recall, the coin pouches were produced in a variety of bright colors, sometimes with a key chain, and almost always with some sort of advertising on them. When you squeezed them, they opened up like a mouth for the coins to drop in. You may also remember that they had a strange smell, typical of rubber or plastic items of the time.

Quikoin, of Akron, Ohio, was the original company that produced these squeezable coin pouches. The company started making them in 1951 and produced tens of millions for the next few decades. According to an article on Cleveland.com, the Quikoin was named as one of the top five promotional products of the 20th century by the industry's trade group. That same article says Frank Sinatra even carried a Quikoin so his change didn't jingle around in his pocket when he was performing.

The patent on the Quikoin has expired, but the company says competitors haven't been able to duplicate their technology. In fact, they are so secretive about the manufacturing that they won't allow photographs of their production line. I love it.

If I remember correctly, that handy little pouch could hold a few bucks in coins. You could stuff a few more in, but the pouch wouldn't close completely then, and it was a bit uncomfortable in your pocket, especially if you were wearing a pair of size 6 Toughskins.

Quikoin has apparently made a resurgence in recent years as some folks like me seek out the nostalgia. The company says it is selling about 2 million per year now to those who want to "conjure up old memories." Others, according to the article at Cleveland.com, are using them to store earrings, guitar picks and even condoms.

Maybe you have a few of these coin pouches today. If so, shoot me a note and let me know. Better yet, send me a photo, too. Or if you are really feeling generous, mail me an actual coin pouch. I will fill it with my own coins.

Have a terrific Tuesday, and thanks for reading. ■

FUNERAL NOTICES

Funeral notices can be emailed to tammy@iowalivingmagazines.com

SHIRLEY ANN PETRO

Shirley Ann Petro, 80, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister and friend, died peacefully on Aug. 8, 2023. She was born on Nov. 6, 1942, near Perry, to Harry Henry and Gladys Irene (Charlet) Sheets.

Growing up near Perry, Shirley attended a country school, where she developed a strong foundation for learning and a deep appreciation for the simple joys of life. On this journey, she met and married Frank Petro. Her family was her heart's treasure, and she poured her love and energy into raising her children with care and kindness. She found joy in simple pleasures like crocheting, knitting and tending to her garden.

She is survived by her children, Cindy Phipps, Donald Petro, Connie Petro, Harold Petro and Mike Petro; grandchildren, Anthony Joynes, Joseph Joynes, Alisha Mullens and Justin Joynes; 17 great-grandchildren; siblings, Patricia Charlet, Dicky (Sheryl) Sheets and Ronnie (Darcy) Sheets; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her son, Kenneth Petro; her parents; and siblings, Roy Hurd, Bobby Hurd, Jerry Sheets, Johnny Sheets, Jackie Sheets and Diana Zenor.

A funeral service was held Tuesday, Aug. 15, at Caldwell Parrish Funeral Home & Crematory in Adel. Interment was in Panther Creek Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials be directed to the family. ■

KENNETH L. MORRELL

Kenneth L. Morrell, 88, son of William and Hazel (Foster) Morrell, was born Jan. 4, 1935, near Scranton. He died peacefully on Tuesday, Aug. 8, on the land he farmed for almost 70 years.

In his early years, the family moved from rural Scranton to a farm near Linden. Kenneth graduated class president and valedictorian from Linden Community School. He married Flossie Jones on April 28, 1956, at the Shiloh Church. Kenneth farmed his entire life and enjoyed nothing more than hard work. Agriculture was not a job to him; it was a way of life.

Kenneth is survived by his wife of 67 years, Flossie, of rural Adel; two sons, Steven and daughter-in-law Janice of rural Adel and Scott of Portland, Oregon; two grandsons, Ethan and Gavin; and a brother, Clyde Morrell. He was preceded in death by his parents, sisters JoAnne Ruble and Dorothy White; and brothers Keith and Norman.

Funeral services were Monday, Aug. 14, at the Twigg Funeral Home, Panora. Burial was in Pleasant Hill Cemetery at Prairie Center. ■

FILM REVIEWS

By Michael C. Woody

'BARBIE'

Granted, the buzz was great, but I don't think anyone expected the box office business that "Barbie" is doing. It is literally breaking records every weekend and generating Oscar buzz. So is it worth it? Yes and no. It is a very clever and creative film and a little more edgy than most anyone would have expected. Everyone involved — from the writing, acting, directing, etc. — is top-notch. Margot Robbie cements her reputation for helping to shepherd great projects to the screen, and director Greta Gerwig does an absolutely excellent job. It has a message to deliver, and it does it amazingly well. Grade: B+

'OPPENHEIMER'

Many theaters aired this and the "Barbie" movies back to back on opening weekend, calling it "Barbenheimer." What started out as a joke helped to deliver huge box office success. Six-plus hours in a movie theater would threaten not only my bladder but my ability to stay awake.

I also really wanted to see this in the IMAX theater in Waukee. Visionary director Christopher Nolan has shot several movies (or pieces of those movies) with IMAX cameras, so you see a truly state-of-the-art version of the director's vision. With a cast that will amaze you and many performances worthy of Oscar nominations, "Oppenheimer" is the best movie I've seen in at least five years. The story of this legendary scientist who helped create the atomic bomb that was dropped on Japan to end World War II is so much more layered than I expected. He was brilliant but had his issues, too, and Nolan shows him — warts and all. I can't imagine another film winning the Best Movie Oscar or the Best Actor award going to anyone other than Cillian Murphy as Oppenheimer. I can't wait to see it again.

Grade: A+

Michael C. Woody has been reviewing movies on radio and television since 1986 and can be heard talking movies every Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. on KXn0 106.3 with Keith Murphy and Andy Fales. You can also follow him on Twitter at MrMovieDSM.

RECIPE

FUEL FOR FULL DAYS OF LEARNING

(Family Features) Between morning routines, days spent in the classroom, extracurriculars and homework, it may seem like there's never enough time in the day during the school year. However, making time for tasty meals and snacks doesn't have to be another burden on jam-packed schedules.

These easy-to-make sliders featuring kid-friendly flavors can help keep little learners (and older family members, too) fueled up and ready to tackle all the school year throws their way. ■

SIMPLE, KID-FRIENDLY SLIDERS

For those busy school nights when time is at a premium and you need to get a meal on the table quickly, these simple yet savory Pepperoni Pizza Sliders can be a perfect solution. A modified take on a kid favorite – pizza – they're easy to make after work and extracurricular activities to steal a few moments of family time enjoying the cheesy pepperoni goodness before completing homework and beginning preparations for a new day.

Pepperoni Pizza Sliders

Recipe adapted from MilkMeansMore.org

- 1 package slider rolls
- 1/2 cup pizza sauce
- 1/2 cup mini pepperoni
- 1 1/2 cups shredded, low-moisture, part-skim mozzarella cheese
- 1/4 cup butter, melted
- 1 teaspoon parsley flakes
- 1/2 teaspoon dried oregano
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/2 cup shredded Parmesan cheese
- nonstick cooking spray

Directions

Heat oven to 350 F.

Keeping rolls connected, cut sheet of rolls horizontally, separating tops from bottoms. Place bottom halves of rolls in baking dish.

Spread pizza sauce evenly over bottom halves. Sprinkle pepperoni over sauce. Sprinkle mozzarella over pepperoni and cover with top halves of rolls.

Mix melted butter with parsley flakes, dried oregano, garlic powder and shredded Parmesan cheese. Spoon evenly over sliders.

Cover baking dish with aluminum foil sprayed with nonstick cooking spray to keep cheese from sticking.

Bake 20 minutes.

Remove foil and bake additional 5-10 minutes, or until Parmesan is melted and golden brown.

Cut sliders and serve immediately.
