Encouraging, engaging, and advocating for a vibrant community!

Each one of us, personally or professionally, has experienced the benefits of periodically conducting self-assessment with the purpose of achievement of our goals. It is important, and yet sometimes difficult, to ask: Where are we? Where do we want to be? What should we stop doing? What should we continue doing or add?

Recently the Johnston Chamber of Commerce conducted such an assessment and identified several enhancement opportunities, which we will be implementing throughout the year.

We look forward to 2024 ...

- Embracing our new mission statement and branding: Encourage, engage, and advocate for our members – resulting in a vibrant community.
- Launching our new and improved website: www.johnstonchamber.com
- Increasing engagement with members, the business community, city leaders, and residents
- Enhancing business opportunities and community events

We welcome your involvement and contributions by...

- Becoming a Johnston Chamber member or renewing your current membership
- Attending business ribbon-cuttings and events
- Sponsoring business and community events
- Volunteering to assist on committees and with events

We are your Chamber ...

The Johnston Chamber of Commerce is here to ensure our community continues to grow, prosper, and be a vibrant place to live, work, and play.

So, if you have thoughts, ideas, or want to get involved, please contact me or our Johnston Chamber of Commerce Executive Director, Samantha Winebrenner, at 515-276-9064 or samantha@johnstonchamber.com.

Proud to be a member of the Johnston community!

Why join the Johnston Chamber?

"As a non-profit organization, Adventures in Social Development (ASD) strives to be all-inclusive with programming. The artists we work alongside deserve to be fully supported and active in their communities. We chose to be part of the Johnston Chamber of Commerce knowing that the Johnston community has a desire to see everyone succeed. My husband and I raised our three children here, and I taught in Johnston schools as a special education teacher for 11 years. Individuals, families, allied professionals, and corporations in Johnston have the heart, the drive, and the support our organization needs to grow and thrive."

Annie Mielke, Ed.M, BCBA, LBA
Adventures in Social Development

"Deciding to be a part of the Johnston Chamber has been a significant part of our success as a new business as we were voted as CITYVIEW's Best Of Des Moines Best New Local Restaurant! Heading the charge, Samantha has been nothing short of an angel for us as we reach out with needs or questions and are met with answers and support every time! Couldn't imagine being a part of a better organization geared toward helping local businesses."

Zack Hollier

"Knowing all the benefits of what the Johnston Chamber of Commerce has to offer, when I took the leap of opening a storefront for my online boutique here in town, as a Johnston resident and new business owner, joining the chamber was a no-brainer for me. After becoming a member just a few months ago, I've been able to attend a couple events and everyone has been so welcoming! It's been great meeting new people and receiving advice and well-wishes from other business owners. I'm looking forward to getting more involved with the chamber and our wonderful J-town community!"

JOHNSTON GREEN DAYS June 13-15, 2024

THIS YEAR'S THEME WILL BE

Paint

Green

LOCATION:
TERRA PARK
6300 Pioneer Parkway,
Johnston

JOHNSTON
HOME GROWN FUN

Johnston Green Days is a community-wide festival held every June at Terra Park. In 2024, the Chamber will host the 28th Green Days Festival from June 13-15. We will kick off our annual Jammin in Johnston Business Expo Thursday evening then on Friday you can join us for our annual car show. Saturday, the celebration starts with a community parade and continues with live music, Johnston alumni celebrations, and ends with fireworks. The festival also includes an ongoing carnival, live music, beer garden, bags tournament, food vendors, Smokin' Heroes competition and much more. Mark your calendars and come celebrate with us.

Why is it called Green Days? When the event was started in 1996, it focused on Johnston's agricultural and horticultural tradition. The Chamber worked with many of Johnston's nurseries and greenhouse operations, local garden clubs and other groups to start this tradition and help it grow to become one of Iowa's leading summer festivals. We continue to celebrate to honor the beautiful green space in Johnston from parks to ag fields. Join us this year and help us "Paint the Town Green."

Green Days is a community celebration for Johnston residents and a showcase of our city for the many other visitors we attract with this event. To get involved or for more information, go to www.johnstongreendays.org.

THE FUTURE IS BRIGHT

Projects to watch

The City of Johnston and Johnston Economic Development Corporation work together as a public-private partnership to enhance the livability and overall quality of life for its residents, workforce, and businesses.

Excitement resonates as Johnston enters a phase of planned growth, particularly in the Merle Hay Gateway area, a key entrance to the city. In 2024, a substantial $100 million of new developments are slated to be completed, featuring two cutting-edge sports entertainment venues, set to attract over 450,000 annual visitors. Additionally, the completion of new retail spaces, hotel accommodations and corporate headquarters will propel further growth.

Significant progress is being made in the northwest annexation area of the city, which spans 1,461 acres. This means new developments in housing, restaurants, businesses, and other amenities. Infrastructure expansion plans for this area are on track, with Phase 1 of the sanitary sewer extension nearing completion, and Phase 2 scheduled to be bid in 2024. Water infrastructure is under design, along with the design underway of the new Hwy 141 interchange at Beaver Creek Golf Course, further opening the area for growth.

Johnston community members, including individuals and business representatives, are encouraged to join JEDCO to promote economic growth and gain access to promotional opportunities.
