

Recital Book

Dance Unlimited of Paradis will once again produce a recital book with pictures of the students, recital program order, business advertisements, and congratulatory ads. It is not mandatory to sell ads but highly encouraged as a way to express support and feature a photograph of your dancer. Families are encouraged to sell ads to businesses and extended family members not only to help reduce out of pocket expenses but to build advertising support within our strong community. All ads sold will be printed in color and located in the back of the recital book.

In addition, we are thrilled to announce the new Cover Girl Contest where the winner will appear on the front cover of the recital book! See more details about the contest below!

*A Pretty Smile as she goes by
That Special twinkle in her eye

A precious giggle when she talks
God made her special, one of a kind
A pure soul with a creative mind

With an inner beauty like a Spring Butterfly*
