10:00 A.M. – SALES TRACK: Unlocking Your Hidden Potential

Research has told us that we only use approximately 10% of our mind’s capacity; what if we were able to access just a small percentage of that hidden potential? Attendees will learn how the mind is influenced through suggestion and conditioning. Mental management tools will be provided to enhance the power of the mind, influence clients & colleagues, and improve cognitive state.

10:00 A.M. – Think Inside the InDesign Box

If you’ve used InDesign for more than 15 minutes you’ve already made boxes... probably lots of them. But there are more to boxes, or frames, than just drawing with the default frame tools. And what about making boxes without making boxes? That’s where the fun begins. In this class you’ll see how to really use InDesign to make magic happen in creating ads, pages, covers, and much more. If you use the techniques I’ll show in this session, you’ll work faster, have more exciting designs, and actually have more fun in front of the computer.

1:00 P.M. – InDesign Styles Stuff...and Stuff

Adobe gave InDesign some new Styles Power in the most recent upgrade, a thing called Style Packs. Take a look at how these can help you design ads faster than ever, along with a bunch of other fun, and powerful, formatting techniques using the many Styles tools InDesign offers. And it’s not just for text, either. If you’re not using Styles, you are truly working too hard.
