Our Program Today:

Kate Cataldo, Blue Monarch

Presented by Marisa Thornton

Kate Cataldo serves as Development Coordinator and Out of the Blue Sales Manager for Blue Monarch, peacefully located near Monteagle mountain in Middle Tennessee. Blue Monarch opened its doors in 2003. But it really began years before that.

One night in the fall of 1995 Susan Binkley had a powerful dream that described in great detail how one might put together a program like Blue Monarch. At the time, Susan realized this dream was like no other, but she didn't understand the significance of it until years later when the dream miraculously came together in real life.

Through the generosity of Madeline and Howell Adams, who believed in Susan's vision, Blue Monarch was able to purchase a 50-acre farm that was previously a bed and breakfast. It came completely furnished and provided everything needed to immediately begin serving women and children in the area who were looking for a new start.

Since 2003 Blue Monarch has served over 600 women and children from across Tennessee and beyond. Through the years, the program has developed into an intensive self-help program providing priceless opportunities for women to learn an entirely new way of life, overcome generations of addiction and abuse, develop a personal relationship with God, and effectively become healthier parents to their children.
