Heather Clemons is a five-year resident of Fayetteville, who is well known in the area for her photography, yoga classes and belly-dance instruction.

She has been belly dancing since 2009. The art form has been a staple in her life ever since, promoting female empowerment and body positivity.

Heather also teaches beginner belly-dance classes here in Fayetteville. In addition, she also enjoys making her living as a yoga teacher and freelance photography in the community.

Her days are happily spent with her husband, Chase, 19-month-old son, Elliott, and dogs, Zoe and Kaylee.
