

THE STATESMAN

Lynbrook Roller Hockey: A Hockey Home for Everyone

Lynbrook Roller Hockey League and Pioneer Sports Long Island

LYNBROOK, New York — After months of preparation, Pioneer Sports' Adult Lynbrook Roller Hockey League (LRHL) is off to a fast and smooth start.

Currently in the middle of its inaugural season, the LRHL is home to nine teams made up of players with varying skill levels. The LRHL is truly the place to be for anyone with a desire to lace up their skates in a competitive, yet fun atmosphere.

In this new and innovative league, which is proudly sponsored by the National Hockey League's New York Islanders, games are held from Monday through Thursday with time slots ranging from 8 to 10 p.m. Additionally, Lynbrook Roller Hockey is conveniently located in the heart of Lynbrook's Greis Park at 55 Wilbur St.

As the LRHL's commissioner, Kevin Vandermark has made his main goal clear: create a hockey home for everyone.

"The Lynbrook Roller Hockey League and Pioneer Sports are committed to bringing the best possible hockey experience to the community," Vandermark said. "And when serving Lynbrook and Long Island as a whole, the best is what they deserve."

Though its inaugural season is still in full swing, Vandermark, along with Pioneer Sports and the LRHL, continue to look ahead to the future. The LRHL's fall season is due to begin in mid-September and it's hoping to grow both its team and player pool.

Registration for the fall season is already open. To sign up, please visit <http://www.lynbrookhockey.com>. The registration fee is $225. If you don't have a team, no need to worry, as you can always sign up as a free agent!

Be sure to sign up quick to secure your spot in the LRHL and be a part of something great!

Anthony DiCocco

Sports Editor of The Statesman