IT'S TIME TO CHANGE THE STRUCTURE OF TEACHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Link Comment by Gordie Brenne of MCTL: Spoken like a true principal. Low-income schools need experienced and effective principals and more assistant principals to boost reading and math proficiency. What teachers don't need is more "collaboration " time. The Blueprint is in left field on this and MCPS needs to hold the line on this unfunded and unproductive mandate. Unstructured collaboration without principals and assistant principal management is a waste of time.
