

ONE in the word

“Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me (Jesus).” (John 5:39)

January 23

TODAY’S READING: Exodus 5-9

OVERVIEW: Moses and Aaron go before Pharaoh; the first seven of the ten plagues.

HIGHLIGHTS & INSIGHTS: Seven times God says to Pharaoh, “Let my people go, that they may serve me” (Exodus 5:1; 7:16; 8:1, 20; 9:1, 13, 10:3). God’s purpose in delivering Israel out of the bondage of Egypt was for Him, not for them! Likewise, God’s purpose in delivering us out of the bondage of Egypt (sin/world) was not so we could live comfortable and happy lives. He saved us for His purposes and pleasure (Ephesians 2:10; Revelation 4:11).

The ten plagues of Egypt had fourfold purpose:

1. They were signs to Israel, assuring them of God’s power and care (Exodus 7:3; 1 Corinthians 1:22)
2. They were judgments upon Egypt and its ruler Pharaoh for persecuting Israel.
3. They were prophecies of judgments that will come upon this world and Satan when Moses reappears on the planet during the tribulation period (Revelation 16).
4. To show the people of Egypt God’s superiority over their gods.
  - ← The 1st plague of bloody waters was directed against the Egyptian god, Osiris, the god of the Nile (Exodus 7:20)
  - ← The 2nd plague of the frogs was directed against Hekt, the Egyptian frog goddess (Exodus 8:6)
  - ← The 3rd plague of lice was directed against the Egyptian god, Seb, the earth god (Exodus 8:17)
  - ← The 4th plague of flies was directed against the Egyptian goddess, Hatkok, the wife of Osiris (Exodus 8:24)
  - ← The 5th plague of cattle disease was directed against the Egyptian god, Apis, the sacred bull god (Exodus 9:6)
  - ← The 6th plague of boils was directed against the Egyptian god, Typhon (Exodus 9:10)
  - ← The 7th plague of hail with fire was directed against the Egyptian god Shu, the god of the atmosphere (Exodus 9:23-24)

- ← The 8th plague of locusts was directed against Serapia, the god who supposedly protected Egypt against locusts (Exodus 10:13-14)
- ← The 9th plague of darkness was directed against the Egyptian god, Ra, the sun god (Exodus 10:22)
- ← The 10th plague, the death of the firstborn, was directed against all gods.

Notice Pharaoh's (Satan's) response to God's command to let his people go in Exodus 5:1. "Pharaoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should obey His voice?" (Exodus 5:2) Keep in mind that the world and Satan have no respect for God's word; it is "vain" to them (Exodus 5:9). Sinners either yield to God's word or resist it and become hardened (Exodus 7:14; Hebrews 3:13).

Note that God says that His purpose in allowing Pharaoh to oppress Israel was so that His power and glory might be known to the world (Exodus 6:7; 7:5, 17; 8:10, 22). Today, God desires to reveal His power and glory through His church (Ephesians 3:10). This is why God allows us to be oppressed (suffer persecution – 2 Timothy 3:12). Just as with Israel it is so that God's power and glory might be known to the world!

- As the REDEEMER from the bondage of sin – Exodus 6:6 (Romans 6:14; Galatians 3:13; 1 Peter 1:18-25)
