● THEATRE ETIQUETTE:

- Indoor theatre etiquette is different from an outdoor sporting event.
- AISLES MUST ALWAYS BE EMPTY OF PERSONS AND ITEMS.
- While applause is WELCOMED AND APPRECIATED, horns or sound devices are inappropriate.
- Courtesy is contagious. If the adults practice courtesy, the children will learn from that.
- Please remain seated while performers are on stage.
- Leaving the auditorium during a performance should only be done in the event of an emergency.
- The opening of doors permits lighting in and is not only a distraction to the performers but also interferes with the professional videotaping of the performance.
- The use of ANY ELECTRONIC DEVICES IS NOT PERMITTED, please do not attempt to bring them into the auditorium. THIS IS DISRESPECTFUL to performers and the audience around you who paid to see the show.
- Use of Electronic Devices is not only a distraction to those around you but also interferes with the professional videotaping of the program.
- Please silence all cell phones and pagers during the performance.
- If you have a child with you that becomes restless, please take them outside the auditorium to the entrance area.
- No food or drink is permitted in the auditorium.
- No smoking is permitted in the building.
