4 IN THE ADMINISTRATIVE MATTER OF:
5 PAHRUMP JUSTICE COURT'S
6 RESPONSE TO CORONAVIRUS
7 DISEASE (COVID-19)

RECEIVED AND FILED

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2022-03

9 NRS 4.157 requires that each justice court having more than one (1) justice of the 10 peace select a chief judge to adopt rules and regulations necessary for the orderly
11 conduct of court business. Pahrump Justice Court general administrative order 2022-01,
12 issued on February 28, 2022, appointed Justice of the Peace Lisa Chamlee as chief judge
13 of the Pahrump Justice Court. Accordingly, this administrative order is hereby issued:

14 On May 6, 2022, Nevada Governor Steve Sisolak announced his intention to end
15 the State of Emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic on May 20, 2022.

16 Accordingly, the Pahrump Justice Court hereby issues the following changes to its 17 previous Covid-19 Administrative Orders, effective May 20, 2022:

- 18
- 19 1. The Court will conduct all civil and criminal hearings in person, with litigants, 20 defendants, counsel, and witnesses appearing in the courtroom, with masks
21 being optional. Social distancing measurements will no longer be utilized. All 22 litigants must appear in court in person unless the court has approved the 23 litigant or counsel to appear electronically. Any litigant or attorney who does not 24 wish to appear in person must orally or in writing request to appear by 25 electronic means with the Justice Court at least one (1) judicial day before the trial/hearing date and must serve the opposing party with a copy of the written

1 request to appear by electronic means. Approval must be granted by the court
2 or an appearance in person is required.

3 All other provisions set forth in the Court's previous Covid-19 Administrative 4 Orders, which are not expressly modified or vacated by this Order are hereby rescinded.
5 This Administrative Order is posted on the Nye County website and copies may be 6 obtained by emailing the Court at pic@pahrumptownshipjusticecourt.com, or by contacting the 7 court at (775) 751-7050.
