Presidents Message

Can you believe we are already in May, and our Passover celebration is quickly becoming a memory. Many thanks to all that helped make the service and second night Seder successful. Sunday May 5th is Holocaust Remembrance Day and on Monday the 6th we will be joining the JCC in Oceanside for a special program.

We would like to send our condolences to Dona Schwab on the loss of her son Howard, to Ethel Zameret on the loss of her husband Joel and to Robert Chorne on the loss of his mom. The reality is we are a shrinking congregation, and we implore you to think back on why you joined SBJC. If it was to insure that you had a shul to go to regularly, or just on the high holidays, to have a place to send your children for a Jewish education, or to just have a place to gather with your friends. We need you now. We need you to make an effort to attend services, one of our programs etc. We need you to help SBJC continue to be the center of all that is Jewish in Baldwin.

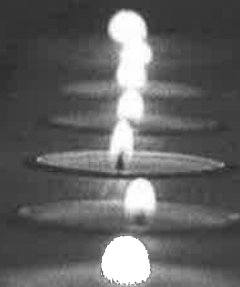

Looking forward to events in May, we will be having the annual congregational meeting (Date to be announced shortly). The slate of officers and board members have to be voted on as well as our budget and other important issues. Please make an effort to attend this year, to insure we have a quorum.

As many of you know, John will be retiring shortly, and we are going to need someone to take over running the office, on a part time basis. If you are aware of someone that you think would be a good fit, please let us know ASAP, or have them contact us, to set up an interview.

Notes From Sisterhood

Betty Arzt, Sheila Goldsmith

When reading an article written by Rabbi Jan Uhrbach, we found reference to a poem written by Marilyn Nelson. We share this poem with you....

Generous Listening

Written by Marilyn Nelson

*A conversation can be a contest,
or a game of catch with invisible balloons.
They bounce between us, growing and shrinking,
sometimes floating like cloud medicine balls,
and sometimes bowling at us like round anvils.
You toss a phrase and understanding blooms
like an anemone of colored lights.
My mind fireworks with unasked questions.
Who is this miracle speaking to me?
And who is this miracle listening?
What amazingness are we creating?
Out of gray matter a star spark of thought leaps between synapses into the air,
and pours through gray matter, into my heart:
how can I not listen generously?*

What are your thoughts about this writing by Marilyn Nelson? What is she suggesting?

Reflections:

We hope that Pesach was enjoyable for you. We trust that your Sederim were meaningful.

Thank you for joining us for the chocolate seder. Appreciation is extended to Carol Burkner and Rachel Rudich who helped prepare for the event.

Looking Ahead:

The Book Club has selected the next book to review. We will be reviewing The Little Liar by Mitch Albus. We will be meeting on Tuesday afternoon, May 21, at 1:00, via Zoom. The Zoom link will be provided prior to the meeting. As always, we thank Cindy Gunther for her preparation and for facilitating the meeting.

We have reserved Sunday morning, May 19, as our day to celebrate Torah Fund. Please watch for details. Thank you to Rowena Weinstein for her dedication to Torah Fund.

The Rosh Hodesh Study Group will be meeting on Sunday morning, June 2, at 10:30, via Zoom. The Zoom link will be provided when we are closer to the date.

Join us for Canasta on Wednesday afternoons at 1:00 and for Mah Jongg on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 in the synagogue.

Torah Fund Cards are available for all occasions.

Wishing you a Happy Mother's Day. Bouquets to the mothers, grandmothers, daughters, aunts, and other women in our lives. We wish all the women in our lives good health, joy, and peace.

The Beauty of Community

Saturday morning services.

It is time to say kaddish.

The woman rises to recite the prayer in memory of her husband.

Tears are beginning to well in her eyes.

She voices the first few words of the Kaddish.

She buckles and slumps down in her seat.

"I can't do this," she whimpers.

Without hesitation, the man walks to her side.

He holds her hand and says,

"I'll do it for you."

She was no longer alone.

She was able to breathe and continue.

He was there to give comfort.

Members of a community provide consolation for each other.

Members of a community are empathetic.

Don't separate yourself from the community.

Yom Hazikaron: Israel's Memorial Day

The fourth of Iyar, the day preceding Israel's Independence Day, was declared by the Israeli Knesset (parliament) to be a Memorial Day for those who lost their lives in the struggle that led to the establishment of the State of Israel and for all military personnel who were killed while in active duty in Israel's armed forces. Joining these two days together conveys a simple message: Israelis owe the independence and the very existence of the Jewish state to the soldiers who sacrificed their lives for it.

Yom Hazikaron, the Israeli Memorial Day, is different in its character and mood from the American Memorial Day. For 24 hours (from sunset to sunset) all places of public entertainment (theaters, cinemas, nightclubs, pubs, etc.) are closed. The most noticeable feature of the day is the sound of a siren that is heard throughout the country twice, during which the entire nation observes a two-minute "standstill" of all traffic and daily activities. The first siren marks the beginning of Memorial Day at 8 p.m., and the second is at 11 a.m., before the public recitation of prayers in the military cemeteries. All radio and television stations broadcast programs portraying the lives and heroic deeds of fallen soldiers. Most of the broadcasting time is devoted to Israeli songs that convey the mood of the day.

Yom Ha'atzmaut: Israel's Independence Day

Israel's Independence Day is celebrated on the fifth day of the month of Iyar, which is the Hebrew date of the formal establishment of the State of Israel, when members of the "provisional government" read and signed a Declaration of Independence in Tel Aviv. The original date corresponded to May 14, 1948. Most of the Jewish communities in the Western world have incorporated this modern holiday into their calendars. In the State of Israel it is a formal holiday, so almost everyone has the day off.

Lag B'Omer

What Is Lag B'Omer?

Lag B'Omer is a minor holiday that occurs on the 33rd day of the Omer, the 49 day period between Passover and Shavuot. A break from the semi-mourning of the Omer, key aspects of Lag B'Omer include holding Jewish weddings (it's the one day during the Omer when Jewish law permits them), lighting bonfires and getting haircuts.

Why We Celebrate

There are a few explanations as to why we celebrate Lag B'Omer, but none is definitive. The Omer is a time of semi-mourning, when weddings and other celebrations are forbidden, and as a sign of grief, observant Jews do not cut their hair. Anthropologists say that many peoples have similar periods of restraint in the early spring to symbolize their concerns about the growth of their crops. But the most often cited explanation for the Jewish practice comes from the Talmud, which tells us that during this season a plague killed thousands of Rabbi Akiva's students because they did not treat one another respectfully. The mourning behavior is presumably in memory of those students and their severe punishment.

According to a medieval tradition, the plague ceased on Lag B'Omer, the 33rd day of the Omer. (The Hebrew letters lamed and gimel which make up the acronym "Lag" have the combined numerical value of 33.) As a result, Lag Ba'Omer became a happy day, interrupting the sadness of the Omer period for 24 hours.

This year we will observe Lag B'Omer on May 26.

In case you missed it...

*In case you missed it...*on Shabbat, April 13, after the service, we experienced a chocolate seder. We followed the order of the seder and enjoyed lots of chocolate. The participants followed the script that was provided and engaged in the ritual. We drank chocolate milk and “dipped” into chocolate syrup.

Thank you to Rachel Rudich and Carol Burkner for preparing for the festivities.

*In case you missed it...*on Sunday afternoon, April 14, a group of us joined together at the synagogue to watch the documentary Nazi Town, USA. This was the story of Nazi sympathizers on American soil. The film focused on the threat of fascist subversion in the United States in the late 1930s.

Thank you to Malka Mittelman and Jeff Barkan for arranging this event.

B'Yachad / together, we can make meaningful things happen.

Thank you

We deeply appreciate the concern, support, and generosity of our friends and neighbors during this difficult time.

We are grateful for the calls, donations, and cards that were sent in memory of Joel.

*With affection,
