

PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT

As a parent or guardian, I understand that my actions are just as important as my player's actions. I realize that my player's actions and attitude are likely to be a direct reflection of me. I realize that my behavior, mannerisms and attitude all have an impact on the team climate and possibly the team's success or failure. I will conduct myself with self-control, showing respect for others, and trying to see the big picture of the value of travel volleyball.

The following is a list of prohibited behaviors:

- Use/consumption/sale/distribution of prescription drugs without a prescription (and/or an illegal substance)
- Attendance of any club function while under the influence of alcohol or any illegal substance
- Stealing or attempt to steal another person's property
- Disrespect toward players, coaches, referees, parents or opposing players
- Approaching a player (including your own player), coach or referee during a competition
- Approaching a team huddle or bench after the start of competition without first being asked join by a coach, or staff member
- Engaging in belittling or demeaning behavior directed toward players, coaches or officials
- Failure to control your emotions, using foul or offensive language, gestures, threats and/or physical violence
- Failure to disclose to the club if my player has been released from another club at any time during their career
- Misuse, abuse or destruction of property
- Littering, including leaving trash behind at practice or competition venues
- Acting in an irresponsible manner that could or did lead to endangerment of other club members
- Inappropriate contact with any athlete

-Coaching from the sidelines (NO instruction from the parent is allowed during practice or tournaments)

I certify that I have read and understand the rules provided above. I also certify that I have read and understand the Direction Volleyball Club Player & Parent/Guardian Handbook.

I understand that violation of any of the above rules may result in disciplinary action such as being banned from attending club events and/or competitions, release of my player from the club and/or notification to local authorities. I understand, regardless of my standing with the club upon any violation of this agreement, I am responsible for all club dues and/or payments in full.
