

A Short History of The Fourth of July

On July 4, 1776, the thirteen colonies claimed their independence from England, an event which eventually led to the formation of the United States. Each year on July 4th, also known as Independence Day, America celebrate this historical event. It has been an American holiday since 1941. (source: military.com)

“God Will guide You Out of Temptation if you Trust Him.”

You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.” I John 4:4

Temptation is all around us. It will knock at your door, it will bang on your window, it will try to sneak into your heart. But when you feel lost or that your faith is wavering, when your guard is slowly breaking down, pray, trust. Know that God is stronger than any temptation, and if you trust Him, he will rescue you.

Please remember to “Love one another with brotherly affection. Out do one another in showing honor.” (Romans 12:10)
