

My Story - Berkeley Nones

Since I was 8 years old, my life has been a story of struggle, sacrifice, and perseverance.

Coming from Nicaragua to Honduras with only my mother-because I never knew my father-we went through very hard times. We were kicked out of a house, and a church gave us a place to sleep. But there was barely any food. I remember eating one egg with six tortillas just to feel full.

I told my mom, "Make nacatamales," and I would go out to the streets to sell them. That's where my entrepreneurial spirit began.

My mom worked as a housekeeper. I dreamed of something more. When we came to the United States, I washed dishes, worked at Winn-Dixie, Publix, sold Cuban bread... I even got burned on the job. But I never gave up.

At 20 years old, I started my dream-curtains. With just a Ford Ranger, I ran the whole business by myself. Sleepless nights, sacrifices, even disrespect-sometimes from my own team. But I always loved what I did. I cared about every detail: from the screw, to the track, to the final install.

Today, I have over 371 great reviews. But behind each one, there's a story. Passion. Dedication. Pain. Late nights. And a heart that beats for my clients.

This journey hasn't been easy, but I'm proud of it. And I want to share it with you-my mom, my wife, and my son. Because everything I am, I owe to you... and to that 8-year-old boy who never stopped dreaming.

With love and pride,

Berkeley
