Garbage

Sharing The Joy
Poetry By Cheryl Murph

Young Billy Jackson was learning early how to do his chores. His parents believed it was a good thing to give Billy responsibility at an early age. Every week he had to empty the garbage and clean the glass door. He found out fast how much fun he had making faces on the glass before he wiped it all away. Taking out the garbage was a stinky job he said, yet he knew it had to be done before he could go outside and play. Burning garbage was a very common thing for folks years ago. There were no dumpsters back then like the ones we now know. In no time at all the garbage would be to the top of the barrel and it would have to be burned. As I thought of little Billy, I was surprised how his chore with garbage had a very valuable lesson I would learn. My mind is like that of the burn barrel and my thoughts are often like the garbage that fills it day in and day out. If I don't allow Jesus to take up the space with his word then I know the poison will take over no doubt. Satan is the most powerful source of evil that will entertain my mind every single day. He is sneaky, he knows my weakness, he knows just what to do to get in my way. If I let him he will have my mind so full of garbage that can corrupt me, anger me, and have me thinking of things that can only come from him. My mind will be like that of the burn barrel, slam full up to it's rim. But oh have I got news for the devil and his deceitful ways! I follow my savior Jesus Christ and he invest the power in me to fight off all evil any time I call on him on any day. Sure my flesh will face all kind of garbage but I have the choice to let it take root in my mind or I can remember all the good things my Heavenly Father has to say.

Remember til our paths cross again, Philippians 4:4-10

Learn how you can contribute to the future of cancer diagnostics.

If you are between the ages of 35 and 79 and have recently been diagnosed with lung cancer, or if your doctor suspects you may have lung cancer, consider participating in a clinical research study to help in the advancement of diagnostic testing and cancer detection.

This study requires only a single visit where a blood sample will be taken. To participate, you must have CT suspicion of lung cancer or have a recent CT showing a pulmonary nodule ≥ 4 mm.

Financial compensation will be provided to qualified participants. Learn more today about how you can participate in this study and help shape the future of cancer research.

Do you suffer from gout?

You may qualify for a clinical research study.

The EXPLORE study will observe the safety and effectiveness of using the medication lesinurad in combination with a xanthine oxidase inhibitor (XOI), compared to using an XOI alone, to lower uric acid levels in the blood of adult patients with gout and kidney disease.

You may be eligible to participate in this study, if you meet all of the following criteria:

- You are between 18-85 years of age
- You have been diagnosed with gout
- You have problems with your kidney function
- You are taking either allopurinol or febuxostat

For more information about the EXPLORE study, please contact:

2nd Annual Bar H Easter Hayride

Easter is a festival and holiday celebrating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the grave. Jesus is the Son of God and gave his life on the cross for our sins. He offers everyone a gift of eternal life and forgiveness of our sins by his death on the cross and his resurrection. Join Christians of all traditions for an Easter Hayride at the Bar H. Arena. You will relive the journey of Jesus to the cross and his resurrection as a depiction of his final days are presented. This is a journey all Christians and people with questions about their faith will enjoy.
